Watervliet Derailment Damages New Cars

Freight Train Runs Off Track; No One Hurt

By CLIFF STEVENS
Colonia Correspondent
WATERVLIET — Cleanup operations were continuing here this morning after a spectacular Chesapeake & Ohio freight train derailment yesterday that dumped six railroad cars and their cargo, 72 1976 Buicks, in or near the city's busiest intersection.

Four other auto-carrying rail cars ran off the tracks but did not tip over.

No one was hurt in the 1:08 p.m. accident although several private autos were at the intersection when the derailment occurred.

There was no immediate estimate of damage, although it was expected to run high with the damage to the new autos. Watervliet city police and rail officials today were trying to pin down the cause of the accident.

Several Watervliet residents linked the derailment to loose rails at and near the intersection.

The derailment occurred at the M-140 (Main street) crossing. Two of the rail cars flipped over into the parking lot of Rogel's Lincoln-Mercury sales, damaging three autos in the lot.

Four additional car carriers flipped over just west of the First street crossing after shearing off the front portion of the Watervliet railroad depot roof overhang.

Watervliet police said today the intersections were opened to traffic this morning, but the tracks had not been cleared and repaired.

"I heard a bang... bang... bang... just like twin 20-millimeter guns going off," said eyewitness Victor Bianchi, assistant Watervliet police chief. "I saw roof splinters flying in the air and then saw the carrier cars flip over behind the Watervliet fire station (located near the First street crossing)."

Bianchi said he then turned and observed a cloud of dust near the Rogel Motor sales and saw derailed cars in that area, with one carrier car more than halfway blocking the busy Main street crossing.

According to Bianchi, the westbound freight train had 52 carloads of new Buicks, or a total of 628 automobiles, with twelve cars to a carrier. Six of the 10 cars that derailed flipped

Kelley Opinion Voids Three BH Appointments

By JIM DELAND
Assistant City Editor

Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley has issued an opinion that the Benton Harbor city commission must have five members present to conduct any official business, including the temporary appointment of commissioners to fill vacant seats.

Kelley's opinion, delivered in a letter to State Sen. Charles O. Zollar, effectively voids the temporary appointment of three new members last week and leaves the commission virtually powerless unless it can assemble all five of its present members.

The commission has not been able to obtain a five-member quorum since the May 18 recall of Mayor Charles Joseph and three other commissioners because of the repeated absence of Commissioner Ford and the absence last Monday of Commissioner Alfred Williams.

Both Mrs. Ford and Williams were members of Joseph's "Clean Slate" faction, and although they now form a minority of the remaining five commissioners, their absence prevents the three-member majority from taking any official action, according to Kelley's ruling.

The other three commissioners — Edmund Eaman, Arnold Bull and Charles Yarbrough — last Monday made three temporary appointments to fill commission vacancies until the Aug. 3 election, but those now appear invalid in the light of Kelley's opinion.

"We'll abide by the attorney general's opinion," Eaman told The Herald-Palladium this morning. "The ones who were appointed last week won't take part in any meetings."

"We'll meet again Monday night and do nothing unless somebody shows up."

Area Votes Monday On School Issues

Voters throughout southwestern Michigan school districts will go to the polls Monday to pick school board members and decide the fate of a variety of tax millage issues.

Polls in the public K-12 districts will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

In Berrien county, 16 of the 14 districts have millage issues on the ballot. Seven of the districts in Van Buren county have millage issues to settle in Fennville, an Allegan county district, voters will also decide on a millage issue.

The districts in Berrien with issues are Benton Harbor, Berrien Springs, Brantwine, Buchanan, Coloma, Eau Claire, New Buffalo, River Valley, St. Joseph and Watervliet. The four without are Bridgman, Calien, Lakeshore and Niles.

In Van Buren county, voters in Bloomingdale, Decatur, Gobles, Lawrence, Lawton, Paw Paw and Mattawan have the money issues to decide. The four without are Bangor, Covert, Hartford and South Haven. None of the districts has bond issues on tap.

Area School District Tax Plans Merit 'Yes'

School districts throughout Michigan will be voting Monday. Besides electing members of their boards of education, many will be voting on tax propositions. There are several such millage proposals coming before voters in the four counties of Southwestern Michigan.

Close to home, Benton Harbor and St. Joseph districts are each asking for one mill.

Coloma is asking for a 2.5-mill tax boost, and Watervliet is asking for 1.15 mills extra.

Eau Claire is asking to renew six mills that expired and add two more mills.

Berrien Springs is asking for renewal of 3.2 mills that expired with its last tax collection and three additional mills.

The Herald-Palladium recommends that all the proposals be approved by district voters.

This isn't to say that other districts in the area asking for millage don't also make good cases for the need. It's just that we've been closer to the Benton Harbor-St. Joseph, Coloma-Watervliet, Eau Claire-Berrien Springs situations and feel confident of our ground.

The six districts are presenting sound tax propositions that in the long run will benefit not only their students, but their communities as well. To deny the relatively modest amounts of requested millage now will simply mean paying a lot more later. This is particularly true in the case of the St. Joseph and Benton Harbor systems.

The St. Joseph tax proposal asks one mill for five years for a building and site fund intended to bring in $130,000 a year to keep the system's buildings up to snuff. Two "yes" votes are required on the necessarily complicated wording to make it possible for the St. Joseph system to take advantage of the savings inherent in the plan. The proceeds of the one-mill, incidentally, can only be used on buildings — not for wages or salaries.

The same thing is true of the one-mill proposal coming up in Benton Harbor — a proposition that will raise about $200,000 annually. Only one "yes" vote is needed in Benton Harbor because of different legal requirements. The school board has promised that if the one mill passes, every building in the district will get attention with critical items like leaky roofs getting first priority.

In every one of the six Twin Cities area districts asking for extra millage Monday, there are voices raised against the propositions. With many, we can sympathize; inflation has made times very difficult for older and larger families.

But, in the long run, these communities will be no better than their schools. The boards of the six districts have asked for logical sums not in excess of basic educational needs. The millage propositions should be supported.

It's Congress That Makes The Cost Of Money High

Wage earners buying homes on current mortgage rates or budgeting bank loans at current rates of interest have waited in vain for all the candidates in the current campaign for the presidential nominations to come to grips with the cost-of-money octopus.

Security being equal, money flows where it can earn the highest rate of return. More people follow the vagaries of the international money markets now than was the case a few years ago.

There is not much any government can do to bring interest rates down dramatically while they remain relatively high elsewhere, except to put its own house in order.

Interest rates in the U.S. are not likely to decline until Washington reduces its huge budget deficit. All other talk is mere verbal decoration beside the demands this deficit makes on the money market.

Until Washington comes closer to balancing its books the cost of money will remain high.

Individuals, Not Society, Hold Key To U.S. Future

In a bicentennial year it is natural to look back over the accomplishments and changes of the past, the growth of a nation as it overcame its historical challenges. It is also a good time to recognize weaknesses and excesses which may have developed and prepare to deal with them while stepping off into the future.

There were many over the last two centuries who did not believe the United States would survive this long, nor prosper as well as it has. Voices now can be heard which say the past was better than the future will be.

Only if Americans permit the prophets of doom to prevail. There certainly is nothing preordained about their messages of doom, nor are their gloomy forecasts unique. A sprinkling of pessimists always has been with us, serving in their way as a challenge to overcome.

That the next century will be as different as the last century has been, is understood. Time never stands still, not even for reflection. The forces of change are with us now, as always. How man prepares himself for that change and what choices he makes as he goes along will determine how celebrants of the tricentennial will look back on the next century.

Because society is nothing more than the sum total of the individuals who comprise it, the success of the next century could depend in large part upon relocating the path to individual responsibility. The temptation to blame society or let society resolve what are basically problems of the individual has become too strong for lasting health.

SAYS PICTURE SERVED PURPOSE

This letter is in response to Robert S. Harper's letter of June 7th, objecting to a picture in the June 1st issue of this paper, of a damaged auto, in which three teenagers were severely injured. On top of the auto, beer cans and a wine bottle were displayed.

It seems Mr. Harper doesn't understand why you informed the public about the beer cans and opened bottle of wine, which were found in the auto.

Since no other vehicle was involved he seems to feel all the article and photo did was hurt, and served no useful purpose. I just wanted Mr. Harper to know that I for one felt it served a VERY useful purpose. It's a photo like that, that serves to remind us all, what alcohol can do to a person's reactions, not to mention their mind and body. A person can point to a photo like that and say "that's what happens when you mix alcohol and driving!" I'm not trying to be cold hearted. I feel sorry for these three boys and their parents. But their auto could've very well have "hit" another vehicle, instead of that tree, and then there might have been more lives to worry about.

If that photo saves just ONE accident like that from happening, wouldn't that say it served its useful purpose?

STINKING WEEDS PROBLEM

The article on page 3, of this newspaper, June 9, about encroachment, is the reason for this letter.

I have a home on the south end of Paw Paw lake. Starting at the west end of Shore Lane drive, to the public beach, the water has not moved for a week. The stagnant weeds, on the top of the water that reach out some 30 feet, have dead fish, cans, plastic bottles and other things. The odor is getting bad.

There is no way this garbage is going to move, because the weeds are holding it.

I called the Coloma Township and I was told nothing can be done until the weed control case is resolved in court.

My question is, how do I get rid of half-a-mile of stinking stagnant weeds and water?

EXPRESSES THANKS TO SJ POLICE

St. Joseph Police Department City Hall St. Joseph Attention: Lt. William Mihalik

Gentlemen:

I would like to thank and commend your excellent department for its fine and extremely prompt work in apprehending a suspect in connection with damage in our building, at apparently considerable risk to personal safety.

On behalf of the association, I can confidently state that we are all extremely grateful that we live in a community where property as well as personal safety is protected by a fine department such as yours. Your prompt and expeditious action saved the property from more than superficial damage.

I would appreciate your lodging a copy of this letter in the personal files of the officers involved.

Thank you again.

OUTS IN KAZOO
KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Bruce Brown, Kalamazoo's city manager since December, 1974, resigned this week. Brown, who blamed a continuing conflict with the city commission for his decision, said the resignation is effective at once. Robert Bobb, assistant city manager, was named to handle the post.

The construction program squeezed through on both propositions to finance a new school structure. The proposed new school is to be erected on a tract of ground located across from the present school building on Pipestone road. Soriter school district residents also elected Murray Moore to the district's school board.

Social Security's Really Insecure

WASHINGTON — It's been well advertised that Social Security faces a financial crisis in the years ahead unless rates are increased sharply, or benefits reduced.

This because of poor estimates as to the number of babies who would be born and mathematical stupidities unworthy of grade-school students but committed by members of Congress who prepared and pushed the benefit calculations. In essence, percentage increases to compensate for inflation were applied to figures already increased in line with inflation.

What's gone virtually unnoticed is an even more serious defect, according to testimony given the Joint Economic Committee of Congress by Martin Feldstein of Harvard University.

The problem: Social Security does not invest its money and therefore earns no interest or dividends on what labor and management pay in. Private pension plans, which can and do invest, increase the assets of these workers covered.

Today, this discrepancy isn't much talked about, because those now retired get more in Social Security benefits than they paid in taxes — possible because the government dips into what you and I pay today to finance those already retired.

But paying out more than has been paid in cannot continue forever.

Eventually, says Feldstein, well-run private pension funds, their assets increased with dividends and interest on capital, will have the means to pay out higher returns on what's been paid in than will Social Security unless the government dips into the general Treasury funds.

At the point when pensions become relatively more profitable for labor and management, Feldstein predicts, "support for Social Security will turn to pressure for a much reduced system."

It will be noted that Ronald Reagan's attempt to publicize this problem backfired in at least one well-advised primary race.

Other Social Security problems, once swept under the rug, have been brought to light in recent appearances before congressional committees.

For one, there's been a trend of late for municipalities and other local governments and agencies to withdraw from Social Security, a major event being New York City's notice of intent to terminate its participation.

Robert Tilove, senior vice president of Martin E. Segal Co., points out that if a public employee has been covered by Social Security for at least 10 years, he or she has permanent entitlement to its retirement benefits, even if he and his employer — say a city — drop out.

Tilove notes that this means the rest of us have to pick up the tab for a goodly share of the benefits paid these employees.

Emphasizing this point, Social Security Commissioner James B. Cardwell testified before the House Ways and Means Committee that if "half the employees of state and local government who are presently covered withdraw, it will mean a loss of contributions in the five-year period 1976-82, of over $37 billion, not offset by diminution of benefit payments." The rest of us who work, and our employers, will be required, of course to make up this $37 billion.

A good many other government employees get a free ride, too. The Advisory Council on Social Security reports that partly because of gaps the minimum benefit is frequently a "windfall" to federal retirees and others receiving pensions based on earnings not covered by Social Security.

And there are a score of other injustices in the system, Feldstein, quoted above, notes that "Under current rules, many working wives pay taxes all their life but receive no more in benefits than if they had not worked. A couple earning $8,000 each will pay more in taxes and get less in benefits than a one-earner couple in which the man earns $10,000."

So much for fairness and equity.

How Serious Is The Rev. Moon?

The Rev. Sun Myung Moon held his "God Bless America Festival" at Yankee Stadium last week, and it turned out to be a rather sparsely attended happening. A great "deaf" of publicity, mostly unfavorable, has been swirling around Moon lately. Critics allege that he brainwashes his followers; that he is a charlatan; that he is a tool of the South Korean CIA.

From what I have seen and read of his movement, I am reasonably sure of the following conclusions. It is partly a racket, partly sincere though intellectually shoddy, and of considerable social interest.

Moon, intellectually considered, thrives in a climate of uncritical theological egalitarianism. America, by common consent, is hospitable to "all churches and creeds." It has seen quite a few zany ones. In that sense, Moon is as American as apple pie.

What else you may think of it, however, the Catholic Church rests its case on serious intellectual arguments. They may be false. That cannot be excluded. But at least they are there.

The Catholic Church makes specific claims with regard to the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. It supports those claims with various kinds of evidence, much of it historical and derived from the reports of witnesses.

The history of Church doctrine, moreover, involves a long process of reflection on the meaning and the implications of those initial events 2,000 years ago. This process of reflection and inference-drawing has, again, involved some of the most powerful minds of successive eras, from St. Paul and St. Augustine and St. Thomas on through the centuries.

The institution of the Catholic Church, as distinguished from its theological doctrine, has also been the subject of sustained reflection over a long period of time. Did Christ found a "church"? Yes, on the evidence, it appears that he did. Well, if so, what kind of church, how structured, and with what kind of authority?

I know that it is undemocratic and anti-exaltation to say so, but all this is serious, indeed Calvin and Luther and Wesley were serious, in a way that Amee Semple McPherson and the Rev. Moon are not.

Clearly enough, Moon appeals to many young people lost in the enormous void at the heart of our secular culture. Moon does propose a "meaning," even if it is intellectually negative. The secular culture tells us how, but not why. Moon offers an answer and he is sweeping up the lonely and the disaffected. Other wandering gurus, like the Maharishi, work the same consistency, occasionally with some merit in their teaching.

Nevertheless it is appalling that the spiritual seekers in our secular culture do not have the means of distinguishing the ephemeral and the shoddy for the serious. Apparently it would be undemocratic and even elitist to observe that in matters of the spirit there are major and minor leagues.

Two 'Freshmen' In 4th District School Of Politics

BH Man Offering 'Middle Way'

A 35-year-old sales engineer from Benton Harbor with virtually no previous political experience is running for the Republican nomination for Fourth district congressman as a "middle way" candidate.

David S. Frazer, of 1985 US-33 North, Benton Harbor, explained that he entered the Fourth district primary "in the hope that my presence will serve notice to the other candidates and to all incumbent politicians that everyday working men and women are dissatisfied that recent political performance has not met our standards, and that (has) caused discomfort and discontent among us."

"To help put us back on course, to help re-implement the basic laws of God and man, to use common sense and logic to solve our problems, to reduce that part of government that serves no useful purpose — and in so doing, insure a clearer future for us and our children — these are the reasons I am on the ballot."

Frazer has been accounts manager for the Benton Harbor Engineering division of the Koehring Co. for the past four years. Prior to that he was associated with the Parker-Hannifin Corp., Recco Tool and Supply, Black and Decker, and the Kirby Co.

He and his wife are both natives of rural Maryland. They are the parents of six children, ranging in age from 4 to 14, to whom Mrs. Ethel Frazer refers as "our ready-made, in-house campaign organization."

His official committee, "Frazer for Congress," is chaired by D. Jack DePree of Niles, with Alvin A. Swingle of Benton Harbor as treasurer. The committee's mailing address is P.O. Box 685, Benton Harbor.

In describing himself as a "middle way" candidate, Frazer added:

"Take note Mr. Liberal and Mr. Ultra-Conservative, there is a middle path, a correct path neither of you has chosen. The people who made and make this country are not happy, but we know of a better way. The forgotten middle class will again return our country to the right path."

He said he would aim at mobilizing the middle Americans who have dropped out of the political process because they lost faith in both the liberal and ultra-conservative alternatives.

Born on a farm in rural Maryland, Frazer graduated from Archmere academy, a Catholic school for boys at Claymont, Del., and attended John Hopkins university, Baltimore, where he was awarded a four-year scholarship by the school of engineering. An Episcopalian, he is a member of St. Andrews society, was active in the Young Republican club, and for some years was a competition driver in many of the country's major sports car road races.

His only previous brush with political experience came in 1974 when he ran unsuccessfully for a vacancy on the Benton Harbor board of education.

His lack of political experience, he said, may be a help because people are fed up with the handlings of today's politicians. He freely admits to being the underdog, and says he probably won't be able to wage an expensive campaign.

He plans to take a leave of absence without pay from his job with Benton Harbor Engineering, to conduct what he called a "plain, old-fashioned door-to-door campaign."

DAVID S. FRAZER
Lists his reasons

Here's Lineup Of Contenders

A total of four Republicans are battling for the nomination for U.S. representative in the Fourth congressional district. And there's one Democratic candidate unopposed for nomination.

All seek the post held by Edward Hutchinson, a St. Joseph Republican who announced in February he was not seeking re-election — after seven terms in Congress — was looking forward to a return to private life. The primary election is scheduled for Aug. 3.

Republicans vying for the nomination are Atty. Lee Boothby of Berrien Springs, Miss Helen Take of St. Joseph, David S. Frazer of Benton Harbor, and David Stockman of St. Joseph. Hutchinson endorsed Boothby last month.

The lone Democratic candidate is Richard E. "Mike" Daugherty of Sister Lakes.

The Fourth district covers all of Berrien, Van Buren, Cass, Branch, and Lenawee counties, most of Hillsdale and St. Joseph counties, and a small portion of Calhoun county.

HELEN TAKE

SJ Woman Using Her Own Cash

Helen Take of St. Joseph, believed to be the first woman candidate for Congress from the Fourth district, now has her campaign in full swing since school is out.

The substitute teacher in the Benton Harbor school system, a political newcomer, is also finding out that it takes cash...a lot of it, to run for such an office.

The 28-year-old Republican, who graduated from Eau Claire high school and Western Michigan university, majoring in sociology, said she has already spent $1,300 of her own money for campaign pamphlets and bumper stickers.

"I have been using my own resources to finance my campaign," she said. "I do not believe in soliciting for funds, but if anyone would like to help my cause, I would greatly appreciate any support."

Miss Take (pronounced Tookes) of 2835 Lakeshore drive, said she is now scheduled "for a number of speaking engagements and will be actively campaigning throughout the Fourth district."

She said her primary concern for seeking office is that "I believe the majority of people are not actually represented and that we must not submit to the policies that are negotiated by a 'select few.'"

"My interests are humanitarian and not for personal success or financial gain, but I also feel it is important to be in a position in which you can effectively help people," she said.

Her campaign committee includes her mother Mrs. Ruth H. Guenther of Eau Claire, and sisters Mrs. Heidi Knuth and Mrs. Sylvia Nick, both of Benton Harbor.

BERRIEN PAGEANT SEEKING CAST

You Can Be A Bicentennial Character

Would-be actors and actresses can step into the limelight Monday at 7:30 p.m. in building 14 on the Youth fairgrounds, Berrien Springs.

That's the casting meeting for Berrien county's Bicentennial pageant, "Fabulous Fruits of Freedom."

Robert Holtzman, director of the pageant, in announcing the meeting, said, "More than 600 people will be needed to enact this spectacular which will depict the history of Berrien county from Indian times to the present."

Land Use Hearing In Waverly

PAW PAW — A hearing on a proposed land use plan for the township will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday by the Waverly township planning commission in the township hall at M-45 and CR-495.

According to William Lackey, planning commission chairman, the meeting will be the final opportunity for citizens to comment on the plan before it is sent to the township board for approval.

Name New President

GAYLORD, Mich. (AP) — Watson Sims of the Battle Creek Enquirer and News has been elected president of the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Association at the group's annual meeting.

Sims succeeds Richard Campbell of the Owassee Argus Press.

Elected vice president Friday was Ray Crandall of the Iron Mountain News.

Ralph May of the Muskegon Chronicle was elected to the organization's executive board, succeeding Glen Bolesonski of the Flint Journal.

Steven Brink Is Trinity Lutheran Valedictorian

Steven Brink, the son of Mrs. Marion Brink and the late Dr. John Brink, was valedictorian of the eighth grade class at Trinity Lutheran school that graduated last night.

It was incorrectly reported in Friday's Herald-Palladium that the valedictorian was Heidi Weimann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Weimann. She was class salutatorian.

Fire Is Linked To Stove Defect

Benton township firemen at 4:45 a.m. today extinguished a blaze that caused extensive damage to the kitchen of a home occupied by Denise Hughes, 161 Madeline avenue.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started from a defective stove.

necessary. The story of the pageant will be told by eight narrators. Casting will be run similar to an auction where by individuals or groups will volunteer or sign up for various segments in which they wish to participate. Rehearsals will require about one hour a week per scene. The first rehearsal will begin Monday, June 21.

The script for the pageant was written by Holtzman of the John B. Rogers Producing Co., Fostoria, Ohio, which is producing and directing the event. There are parts for both adults and children. The pageant will be held July 21-24 at the Berrien Springs fairgrounds.

Holtzman, in depicting the story format for the pageant, said the show will open with the signing of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. As the pageant moves into the 200 years after the founding of this nation there are scenes depicting early settlers in Berrien county and the county's subsequent development.

Among other highlights will be scenes the county's participation in the Civil War, the founding of Andrews university, the first airplane flight of Augustus Herring at Silver Beach, the Jack Dempsey championship fight in Benton Harbor and the arrival of major industries in Berrien county.

A history of Blossomtime from its beginning in 1906 to the present will be followed by the civic growth and improvement in the county. The finale will be on the theme "Center of the World."

THOMAS L. HAUCH
Gets medical degree

Thomas L. Hauch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hauch, 2216 Brown School road, Shoreham, received his medical degree from the University of Michigan medical school at graduation exercises June 4.

Dr. Hauch, 25, is a 1969 graduate of St. Joseph high school. He received the Whirlpool Foundation scholarship. He did his undergraduate studies at Albion college and graduated summa cum laude with an A.B. degree in biology in 1972.

Dr. Hauch will begin a three-year residency in emergency medicine July 1 at Northwestern Medical Center, Chicago.

SJ Elks Will Mark Flag Day

John A. Smetanka, Berrien county prosecuting attorney, will be the guest speaker at the annual Flag day service at 7:30 p.m. Monday sponsored by St. Joseph Elks No. 541 in their lodge room, 518 Broad street, St. Joseph.

Exalted Ruler Warren Shafer said the ceremony will be conducted by the officers of the lodge assisted by the lodge ritual drill team. The public is invited to attend, Shafer said.

Three Hurt In Benton Car Crash

Three people were treated and released from Mercy hospital after their auto struck a tree off Burton avenue near Chicago avenue in Benton township about 2:10 a.m. today.

Township police identified the occupants as Beatrice Napier, 18, of 847 Wauvea avenue, Benton Harbor, the driver; and passengers Rose Napier, 17, also of 847 Wauvea, and Lennie Jones, 19, of 1490 Hurd avenue, Fairplain. No tickets were issued, pending further investigation, police said.

From Photos Available At BHHS Office

Prom photos for Benton Harbor high school students are now available at the high school office and can be picked up during regular school hours. Frank Hassler, of Hassler Studios in Stevensville, said today. He said students with inquiries about their photos should contact the high school and not his office.

BH Board Sets 'Work Session' Monday Evening

A meeting of the Benton Harbor board of education at 6 p.m. Monday is a "work session" not a regular meeting as reported Wednesday. A press release from the board of education described it as "regular" meeting.

BH Schools Slate GED Examination

Benton Harbor Area schools adult education services will be administering the GED (General Education Development) examination June 14 through 17, Monday through Thursday, from 6 to 10 p.m.

People eligible to take the GED test must be age 18 or older and out of school, and their high school class should already have graduated.

The GED test is considered the equivalent of a high school diploma. It is recognized by most colleges, vocational schools and technical schools.

Testing will be in Room 223 at Benton Harbor high school, front gym entrance. There is a $10 test fee.

Bradburn Heads Fund Trustees

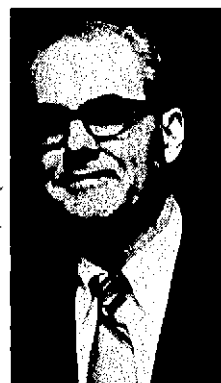

Robert A. Bradburn, administrator of Memorial hospital in St. Joseph, has been elected chairman of the Michigan Hospital Association's workers' compensation self-insurers fund trustees.

Bradburn was instrumental in establishing the fund, a mutual company formed by about 40 hospitals to provide self-insurance on workers' compensation.

The fund, established in Jan.

this year, is open to all members of the Michigan Hospital Association. Since it is a non-profit mutual company, it is able to offer competitive rates on workers' compensation premiums at considerable savings to hospitals, Bradburn said.

Bradburn also is a member of the board of directors of the MHA Mutual Insurance company, established to provide malpractice insurance for member hospitals.

Plan General Assembly

PAST AND PRESENT: First the first time since its founding, the governing body of the Church of the Nazarene will return to Pilot Point, Tex., where in a 1908 meeting (top) the church was officially organized. (Bottom) Following the business meetings of that first assembly, a spontaneous march in celebration took place around the assembly tent. The 19th Centennial General Assembly of the church will meet in nearby Dallas; June 17-25. Delegates to the assembly will pay tribute to the church's founding at special ceremonies at Pilot Point. Today the historic location is designated by a marble marker, shown here (bottom) being observed by visitors on a Sunday. The Rev. Phineas F. Brusee founded the church with 135 charter members and the church has grown to nearly 600,000 worldwide.

Form Michigan ERAmerica

By WILLIAM WEDDORN
Women's News Bureau

DETROIT — Helen Milliken, wife of Republican Governor William G. Milliken, and Martha Griffiths, former Democratic Congresswoman, have teamed up to form Michigan ERAmerica, a statewide organization to assist national coalition of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) to the United States Constitution.

"Michigan is the first state to organize a local effort, patterned after the national coalition of ERAmerica," Mrs. Milliken said in a press conference held by the two highway chairmen in the Detroit Press Club. "This is part of a national effort which will help in education of the effects of an anti-sex discrimination law in our Constitution to benefit both men and women."

Mrs. Griffiths, a sponsor of the ERA proposal in 1970 while a Representative, was instrumental in securing approval by congress to send the amendment to the states for ratification in 1972. Recalling that the fight in congress was not an easy one, she said she expects the final push for ratification in the remaining states will be equally difficult.

Four more states must join the 31 which have already ratified the amendment by 1978. Michigan's legislature was among the first 22 states ratifying the ERA in 1972 but there are currently resolutions in the House and Senate which would rescind the ratification.

"We cannot lose sight of the organized campaign being waged to rescind the Michigan ratification," Mrs. Griffiths, a lawyer, warned. "While in my judgment and the judgment of the Attorney General, such a move would be clearly illegal, we must nevertheless be vigilant and refute the false claims and the propaganda of our opponents at every opportunity."

The new state coalition will serve as a vehicle for other organizations in their work promoting the ERA. So far these include the League of Women Voters, National Organization for Women (NOW), AFL-CIO, Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW), YWCA, Junior League Chapters, Association of American University Women (AAUW), Business and Professional Women, Negro Business and Professional Women and Delta Sigma Theta.

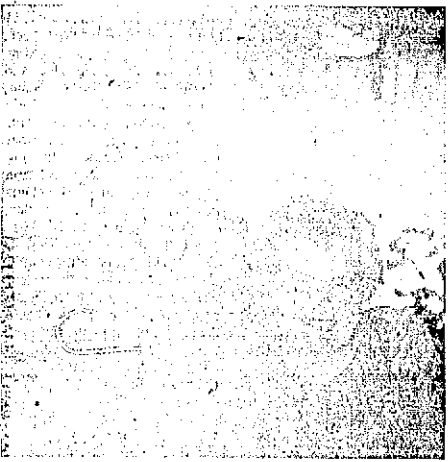

Membership cuts across party lines as in the National ERAmerica which is headed by political veterans Republican Lily Peterson and Democrat Liz Carpenter. The two groups will be "loosely connected."

Michigan ERAmerica has been shaped during several bi-weekly meetings at headquarters located in the YWCA, Lansing, with Mrs. Milliken and Mrs. Griffiths helping with the organization.

Meetings will continue there with three co-chairmen, Pat Houserman, Portage, head of the Michigan Education Association Women's Caucus; LaBarbara Grange, Detroit, of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, and Laura Callow, Landonia, representing Women Organized to Meet Existing Needs (WOMEN).

The women are establishing a speaker's bureau, planning in mail out newsletters, publish a brochure expounding the ERA benefits and will hold fund-raising events to defray expenses.

ATTENTION! Future Brides

Did you know that the bride-to-be may have her choice?
Use proper names — not nicknames. In wedding information, use husband's names for married attendants.
Only pictures of the bride in her wedding dress will be used. Formal glossy black and white portraits are preferred.
Engagement and wedding pictures are usually available at the newspaper office after publication for a short time.

GOBLES — Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaeffer, route 1, 30th street, Gobles, will be honored at a surprise open house Sunday, June 13, from 2 to 6 p.m. at Alamo township hall in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary.
Friends and relatives are invited.
Hosting the event will be their daughters and families, Mrs. Richard (Florence) Burns of Gobles, Mrs. Walter (Sara Louise) Strole of Boroda and Mrs. Robert (Mae) Knight of Michigan and Ruskin, Fla.
Edward Schaeffer and the former Maude M. Hughes were married Feb. 6, 1926, in Muncie, Ind. They moved to Kalamazoo in 1943 and have since resided in Kalamazoo and Van Buren counties.
Schaeffer, a veteran of World War I, retired from grape farming in 1972. After 21 years of employment, Mrs. Schaeffer retired in 1965 from Gibson, Inc., Kalamazoo.
The couple has nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Installation Service

REV. RUSSELL PANICO SR.

BRIDGMAN — The Rev. Russell Thomas Panico Sr., will be installed pastor of Olivet Congregational church, Bridgman, Sunday, June 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited. Dr. Herbert C. Webber, pastor emeritus, will be the installation speaker.

The Rev. Panico was born in Hicksville, Ohio. Before coming to Bridgman, he served as pastor of a Bible Mission church in Wisconsin and was a minister in the Evangelical United Brethren-Methodist denomination for 10 years.

He attended Bowling Green State university, Bowling

Green, Ohio, and Moody Bible Institute, Chicago. He was graduated from Bluffton Menonite college, Bluffton, Ohio, with a bachelor of arts degree. He also attended the Methodist Theological seminary, Delaware, Ohio.

He was ordained by the Evangelical Church Alliance at the Midwest Bible Conference in 1974 at afternoon, S.D.

The Rev. Panico and his wife, the former Kay Turney, have three daughters, Mitzzy Ann, Mindy Ann and Morney Ann, and a son, Russell Jr.

An old-fashioned ice cream and cake reception will follow the service.

To Honor Lackers Sunday

Ministers For 25 Years

The Rev. Robert J. Lackner, and his wife, the Rev. Ruth Lackner, will be honored Sunday, June 13, for the 25th anniversary of their ordination into the Christian ministry.

The couple will be honored by the congregation of First Baptist church, Benton Harbor, where the Rev. Robert Lackner serves as pastor.

During the 11 a.m. worship service, the Lackers will tell of their experiences in the ministry. From 4 to 5 p.m., they will be honored at a reception in the youth center of the church. The reception is being sponsored by the Diaconate for church members and community friends to greet the Lackers.

During the morning service, Irving Talbot and Mrs. Valorus

Kerry will convey congratulations of the congregation and the Rev. Ivan Estle will represent the American Baptist Churches of Michigan.

Having been examined and approved by the ordination council of the Miami association, Mr. and Mrs. Lackner were ordained by their home church, the Kenwood Baptist church of Cincinnati, Ohio, on June 24, 1951. Mrs. Lackner's father, the late Dr. J. Stanley Matthews, gave the ordination prayer for the service which was held on the 30th anniversary of his own ordination.

The Lackers were graduated from Wilmington college, Wilmington, Ohio, with majors in history and religion. They earned their master of divinity degrees from Colgate Rochester Divinity school, Rochester, N.Y.

Early in their ministry, Mr. and Mrs. Lackner served as pastors of churches in Ohio and

New York, but in recent years, Mrs. Lackner has preferred to serve in an unofficial capacity in the churches of which her husband is pastor.

The Rev. Robert Lackner has held several denominational offices in both Ohio and Michigan, and currently serves as chairman of the Commission on the Ministry for the American Baptist Churches of Michigan.

He is an instructor and member of the board of directors of Luther Rice Extension seminary of Benton Harbor, serves on the Blossomland United Way Community Service Council, board of directors of the NAACP, and as treasurer of the Benton Harbor Youth Assistance committee.

The Rev. Ruth Lackner is serving her second year as vice president of the Berrien County Council of Churches. She has also been the Bible study instructor for the Twin Cities

THE REV. RUTH LACKNER AND THE REV. ROBERT LACKNER

Church Women United. The Lackers have two children, Margaret, a senior at Western Michigan university, and Barbara, a senior at Benton Harbor high school.

New Associate Pastor

REV. KANJIRATHINKAL

The Rev. Fr. Mathew Kanjirathinkal, a religious order priest from India, has been appointed by the Most Rev. Paul V. Donovan, Bishop of Kalamazoo, to serve as associate pastor of St. John's Catholic church, Benton Harbor.

Fr. Kanjirathinkal is from Kerala, India, and is a member of the Little Flower Congregation, an indigenous religious community of men for mission work and social services. He was ordained a priest at Poona near Bombay, India, Oct. 23, 1970.

After receiving a master's degree in philosophy and theology, Fr. Kanjirathinkal's first assignment as a priest was in teach philosophy at the Pontifical College Alwaye in India, where more than 600 students were in training for the priesthood. He taught for three years and served as a pastor for 10 months.

In February of 1975, he left India to do advanced studies at Tubingen, West Germany. He came to the United States in March to complete his studies toward a master's degree in guidance and counseling to gain further pastoral experience.

His appointment to Benton Harbor was effective May 10.

Accepts Synod Post

DONALD ZIMMERMAN

An open house will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zimmerman at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Stevensville, Sunday, June 13, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Friends of the community are invited.

Zimmerman has accepted the position as executive secretary of the Board of Parish Education of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod and will leave Stevensville soon for Milwaukee, Wis., where he will assume his duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman have taught Sunday school for the church for the past 12 years. Zimmerman has also served as principal of the school, as head organist and as choir director for the church.

Churches Plan Guest Speakers

Franco Santonocito, pastor of the Church of God in Rome (Ostia), Italy, will be guest speaker at First Church of God in St. Joseph Sunday, June 13.

He will speak in both morning services at 8:30 and 10:45 a.m. and in the evening service at 6 p.m.

Santonocito is a product of Church of God missions work in Egypt. Prior to his ministry in Rome, he was a missionary to Egypt, giving leadership in the Alexandria, Egypt Youth Center. He has served for four years in his present assignment.

He received his training at the Evangelical School of Theology in Beirut, Lebanon, and did additional studies at Haigazian college, a liberal arts American school. He is married and has three children.

Santonocito serves under appointment of the missionary board of the Church of God, located in Anderson, Ind. He will be the featured speaker for the church's International Convention Christ's World Service Day observance Wednesday, June 16. The convention draws about 25,000 people from across the nation and meets week-long in Anderson.

Pastor Santonocito speaks five languages fluently and has served as an interpreter for Billy Graham in European campaigns.

According to the Rev. Lovell J. Sorrell, pastor of First Church of God, Santonocito is making a short tour prior to his Anderson convention assignment and will be available for these services only.

FRANCO SANTONOCITO

The Rev. Nelson Junges will conclude a year's stay in the United States by serving as guest speaker Sunday, June 13, at the German Church of God, 4051 Washington avenue, St. Joseph.

He will speak for the 7 p.m. service.

He and his family will return to Curitiba, Brazil, after spending a year in the United States conducting speaking engagements and studying at Warner Southern college in Florida. The service Sunday will be in German and the public is invited.

The Rev. Junges is a native of Brazil, where he has served as pastor, evangelist, Bible teacher and radio speaker. He studied at the Fritzlar Bible seminary in Fritzlar, Germany.

THE BIBLE

No. 243, Praise to the Lord

Isaiah prophesied that, even though God might find it necessary to chastise and even punish His people, one day there would occur a great union. He predicted that this day would be an occasion for great joy and praise.

"And in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me; thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation." (Isaiah 12:1-3)

"And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare: his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted. Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth. Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee." Choirs Plan Musicals

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH of Benton Harbor will conclude its regular worship season Sunday, June 13, at 11 a.m. with a unique contemporary musical, "Lightshine."

The church choir will perform the folk musical written by Beryl Rod under the direction of Philip Jenkins. The public is invited.

Based on the words of the Beatitudes, this work utilizes a broad range of musical styles from Gregorian Chant to easy folk.

With pre-recorded accompaniment, the 30 voices will revitalize this musical which was premiered during the Arts in Religion Festival of 1974.

The role of the teacher will be played by Stephen Sizer and the role of the mime will be played by Patrice Sizer and featured soloist will be Beth Skelley.

The choir of LAKESHORE BAPTIST CHURCH, Stevensville, as a contribution to the Bicentennial, will present a special concert Sunday, June 13, during the 10:30 a.m. worship service.

The public is invited to the program which will be a presentation of the cantata, "I Love America." Mrs. Doyle (Donneville) Backmeier is the director and Mrs. Don (Leona) Brakka and Mrs. Larry (Muriel) Holben are accompanists.

Soloists will be Miss Diane Sanford, Mrs. Beverly Sanford, Dick Seal and Larry Holben. Instrumentalists will be Cindy Albrecht, Donna Bollenbacher, Valerie Miller, Rhonda Hoge, Ed Lindenmeyer, Mark Thompson, Mike Hoge and John Murphy.

Plan Convention

Ray St. Pierre, spokesman for the three twin cities congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses, has announced plans have been completed for a four-day district convention in South Bend, Ind., July 1-4.

St. Pierre said 10,000 delegates are expected to attend the annual convention to be held at the Notre Dame Athletic and Convocation Center. He said 250 are expected to attend from the twin cities area.

He said the theme of the conference is "Speed Service," and that the program will focus on improving life spiritually within the family circle.

"There will be specific information for husbands, wives and young people," St. Pierre said, "designed to examine the problems confronting society today and suggesting concrete solutions to overcome them."

The convention program will include Bible lectures, symposiums, discussion periods and four Bible dramas.

A baptismal service will be one of the highlights of the meeting and will be held Friday, July 2. The convention will conclude Sunday, July 4, with the 2 p.m. program, a Bible discussion, "Will Serving God Solve Your Problems?"

St. Pierre said 34 conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses will be held in the United States during the summer.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

Sourpusses Of World: Smile

Dear Ann Landers: Please print this piece for all the sourpusses in the world — and we have more than we need. I clipped it from a magazine 26 years ago and have kept it under the glass on my dresser. It has helped me be a more cheerful person. The author is unknown.

The Beauty of a Smile

A smile costs nothing but its value is priceless.

It enriches the one who gives it, yet it impoverishes him not.

It happens in a flash but the memory may last for days.

No one is so rich that he can get along without it. No one is so poor that he cannot afford to give it.

A smile generates happiness in the home and good will in business because it says, "I like you. You please me."

If you meet an acquaintance or a friend who is too busy to give you a smile — leave one of yours.

No one needs a smile so much as the person who has none to give. — Modesto Lee Reader

Dear Bee: Thanks for a honey of a thought. It sweetened my day.

Saved From Fear

Dear Ann Landers: I am writing in the hope of reaching "Housebound" and others who are afraid of crowds, other people, and have a host of other fears that can't be described.

My life was good. I had every human comfort. There was no logical reason for me to have attacks of panic. But for a long time I was afraid to go anywhere for fear I'd faint or be hurt by some unknown force. It is impossible to describe the terrors I suffered because none of it makes sense.

I went to two psychiatrists. They didn't help me. I joined another church. It made no difference. Then a neighbor suggested "Recovery, Inc." I thought, "What do I have to lose?" So I went to a meeting. It was like a miracle. Suddenly I knew I was going to make it. For the first time someone got inside my head and said, "You are not the only one with this problem," and told me what to do about it.

ANN LANDERS

Because of Recovery, Inc., I realized I had "agoraphobia." At last my fear had a name and I knew what I was fighting.

Today I am able to go anywhere. I love life. I'm free of fear. I'm a new person. Please, Ann, I know you've mentioned this grand organization in your column before, but do it again.

— Saved Me

Dear Saved: Thank you for reminding me to recommend, once again, Recovery, Inc. There are hundreds of chapters all over the United States, 70 in Canada, and eight in Puerto Rico. It costs nothing. Look in the phone book. Recovery, Inc. is for men and women who feel they need help with emotional problems of all types. Their record of success is fabulous. What more can I say?

CONFIDENTIAL to Sick Of Hearing "Wop, Kike, Spic, Honky, Spade, etc.": Let him have it with both barrels. Such racial slurs should not be tolerated. (I don't care if he is your father-in-law or whose house you happen to be in.) If you wait your children to be good Americans, they should be taught early that people of all races and nationalities deserve respect.

Fernwood Plans Symposium

Fernwood Nature Center, south of Berrien Springs on Range Line road, has scheduled a class in basic design and a three-day family symposium among its activities next week.

A class on basic design will meet Monday through Friday, June 14, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. with Lois and Walter McBride as instructors.

Basic design is the background for all other forms in arts and crafts. According to the McBrides, design is the process by which we organize our thoughts and ideas and is governed by certain laws. Students will work with these laws and principles while mastering an understanding of line, form, tone, color and texture.

The family symposium will begin at 6:30 p.m. Friday, June 18. Friday's activities will include registration, setting up camps and an old-fashioned taffy pull.

Saturday activities will include a demonstration on the art of spinning by members of the St. Joe Valley Hand Spinners, a horseshoeing demonstration by Bud "Roadrunner" and a program for children, "Sow One for the Harvest, One for the Crow," which will show youngsters all about planting crops like their grandparents did by Stan Beikmann, Fernwood director and horticulturist.

Bob Pernypacker will demonstrate the loading and handling of muzzle loading guns; Bill Beverly will present a lecture and slide show on the archaeology of southwestern Michigan, and Diane Kriegerbocker and Bobbi Wagonmaker will demonstrate candle dipping.

In the afternoon there will be canoeing, a demonstration of the history and customs of the Potawatomi Indians by James Tupish, Robert Stark and Karen Kay, a volleyball game, children's games, and horseshoe pitching.

Olive Williams will demonstrate the making of mint julep and Bill Blighman, planetarium director at Uptown Junior

SH Senior Citizens Activities Scheduled

SOUTH HAVEN — "Exercises for People Over 60" is a new program being sponsored by the Community Education-Recreation office beginning Monday, June 14.

The "Feel Fit" program will begin at 10:45 a.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, in the lounge of Harbor View Apartments, Indiana avenue.

There will be no charge.

The program was developed by the National Association for Human Development in cooperation with the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, under a grant for the Administration on Aging.

The Traveling Seniors, a group established through the Community Education office, will take its next all-day trip to Lansing, Tuesday, June 17.

The group will tour the State museum, visit the legislature while in session and tour the Police Academy. Seniors will have lunch with legislators in the cafeteria.

Cost of the trip is $5, which does not include lunch.

All senior citizens in the area are invited. Reservations may be made by calling L.C. Mohr high school in South Haven.

Buses will leave First Congregational church parking lot at 6:30 a.m. and Harbor View Apartments at 7 a.m. and return to South Haven about 7 p.m.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Everyone is appreciative of compliments, but they are especially important to you today. It's your way of knowing others are aware of your achievements.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Although you'll take your involvements seriously today, you'll still be philosophical regarding their outcome. Surprisingly, all should come out well.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your strong suit again today is joint ventures or situations where you share something in common with another. Concentrate on those areas.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You definitely won't enjoy being a loner today so it's best you make plans that include pleasant companions. Don't wait to be asked.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You'll be in more of an industrious mood than a social one today. You'll get a bigger kick out of doing something productive than you will wasting time.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If you blend business with pleasure in proper proportions today, it could turn out to be a profitable mixture. Socialize with persons who could help you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) You may be a bit of a sluggish starter today, but you'll be a stronger finisher. Don't be afraid to tackle tough projects.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 22) This is one of those days where you'll get very restless if you're anchored in one place too long. Get out and move around a little.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) You're an extremely capable manager of your resources today. In addition, you're also rather sharp in spotting deals for yourself.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 19) Personal freedom and independence to do what you choose will be very important to you today. Try not to let others impose on your time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It is essential that you have some time to yourself today. There are private matters you can take care of if left to your own devices.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You are realistic about your future prospects today, because you see things as they are. You have a good chance to work out necessary details.

Ultrasound, or ultrasonic vibrations, is now being used with great success to determine if a growth in the kidneys is cancerous or non-cancerous.

Dr. Morton Schneider, of the Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn, N.Y., has been using the echoes produced by ultrasound to distinguish different types of cysts and tumors of the kidneys.

Dr. Schneider and his co-workers have attained about 95 per cent accuracy in these types of cases. The procedure is done with great speed and safety and reveals important evidence that can determine the treatment for the particular condition.

Ultrasound techniques were developed from the basic sonar methods that were used to hunt enemy submarines during World War II.

It is expected that ultrasound will have expanded use in the diagnosis of some forms of heart diseases, liver disorders and even in following the progress of a pregnancy.

Pemphigus is a strange, uncommon and often dangerous skin disease. It has resisted most forms of treatment. At the present time, the use of cortisone has been virtually the only valuable method of controlling and possibly curing pemphigus.

Now, from the University of Miami School of Medicine, a team of dermatologists headed by Dr. Neal S. Penneys is making new inroads into the control of this complex problem.

A special type of gold preparation, used in some cases of arthritis, is being tried in the treatment of pemphigus.

The preliminary results indicate that this serious problem will be more efficiently controlled.

A newly discovered substance known as anti-proteinase may have important implications in the prevention of emphysema.

Dr. George Weinbaum, of the Albert Einstein Medical Center in New York, working on experimental animals, is testing this and other allied substances in the hope that it can reduce the development of emphysema.

If confirmed by continuing studies, the benefits will be translated to humans.

Libyan 'Peacekeeping' Troops Enter Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Libyan troops have entered Beirut as the first unit of a pan-Arab peacekeeping force and they are trying to separate fighting Syrian and Palestinian forces, the Libyan premier said today.

"A disengagement process already is under way on Beirut's outskirts between Syrian troops and guerrillas," said Libyan Premier Abdul Salam Jalloud. "A Libyan unit arrived in Beirut to supervise the disengagement and lift Syria's food blockade of the Lebanese capital. There was no immediate reaction from the Christian Lebanese leadership which vowed Friday to fight any foreign — Arab — other than Syrians that set foot in Lebanon

"under the pretext of restoring peace in our country." The Arab League decided this week to send in a pan-Arab force to stop the fighting between the Syrians, who intervened June 1, and the Palestinians. Jalloud, who has been overseeing Arab efforts to end the fighting, was quoted in a statement broadcast by the Syrian state radio. He was in Damascus for talks with Syrian President Hafez Assad. Jalloud did not say how many Libyan troops were in Beirut but leftist sources here said 16 Libyan officers arrived Friday night. The leftist-held Beirut radio reported tentative agreements to set up demilitarized zones in Beirut's southern and southeastern outskirts to end the six-day Syrian blockade. Jalloud called the agreements a test and said they were designed to set the stage for an overall peace accord between Syria and Yasser Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization. One leftist spokesman said Jalloud will try to win Assad's approval of a two-stage withdrawal of Syrian forces from Lebanon over 20 days.

Rep. Hays Now On His Feet And Kicking

By GEORGE ESPEN, Associated Press Writer. BARNESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Wayne Hays, rapidly improving from an overdose of sleeping pills, was on his feet and "complaining" about everything, his physician said.

Hays, center of the congressional payroll-sex scandal, was moved Friday from an intensive care unit to a private room. Dr. Richard Phillips said Hays took an overdose of sleeping tablets that may have been up to 10 times the normal dosage.

Phillips said he did not know whether the overdose was a suicide attempt or accidental. He said that the 55-year-old Democratic congressman stood at the edge of his hospital bed Friday and asked for his bedroom slippers. Hays is "his old self again, complaining about everything," the physician said.

Phillips said that it was expected that Hays would remain in the hospital another week and then would spend an additional week to 10 days at home and would be able to resume his duties in Congress.

In Washington, Hays faces pressure from colleagues to relinquish his position as chairman of the House Administration Committee because of his admitted "personal relationship" with Elizabeth Ray, a 33-year-old former member of his conmittee staff. Miss Ray has accused him of putting her on his congressional payroll at a salary of $14,000 a year to be his mistress. Hays has denied the accusation.

Phillips said that laboratory tests returned from Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh confirmed the drug which Hays took was Dalmane and that it was a toxic level.

State Democrats To Find Delegates Already Picked

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

State Democratic party members attending caucuses today to elect national convention delegates will find many of those decisions already made by officials in the Jimmy Carter and Morris Udall campaigns, the Ypsilanti Press said Friday.

From the second congressional district, for instance, five delegates to the national convention in New York City will be chosen. But party members will discover only one candidate is running for each position, the Press reported, even though many others filed documents for candidacy.

Caucus officials — using a new rule in the Democratic party bylaws — have kept the vast majority of the approximately 1,200 who want to run for state delegate positions from doing so, the Press said.

Democratic State Chairman, Marjorie Winograd confirmed that in a majority of Michigan districts, delegate elections will be uncontested.

He admitted many elections, held this weekend in each of the state's 19 congressional districts, will amount to

Union Chief Hits GOP Incumbents

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan AFL-CIO President William Marshall says Gov. William Milliken and Sen. Robert P. Griffin must be replaced in 1978.

Marshall fired his verbal broadside at the two Republican incumbents at the Metropolitan Detroit AFL-CIO convention Friday.

His attack on Milliken surprised political observers, for the two apparently had been on good terms in the past.

Marshall told reporters after his speech the relationship had "slipped during the past year" because, Marshall said, Milliken has moved further and further to the right.

The head of the 325,000-member Michigan AFL-CIO enumerated several grievances against Milliken including Milliken's alleged failure to support changes in worker's compensation laws as advocated by labor and his veto of legislation to improve safety conditions for underground utility workers.

nothing more than a "rubber-stamping" of delegate choices made by campaign officials. At-large delegates will be chosen later in Lansing.

Winograd said party officials did not know how many delegate slots would be contested today.

Democrats, however, may ignore what the campaign organizers have done and elect whomsoever they want to go to the national convention, according to party sources. The national party's credentials committee would then have to decide who could be seated as delegates from both states would vie for seating at the convention.

To vote in state caucuses, officials said, a person must contribute financially to become a party member.

"When they get there, they'll find out they have nothing to vote on," one party member told the Press. "They paid their money and they got nothing for it."

The delegate selection process began in the May 18 presidential primary. Carter won 50, Udall got 30 and the remaining six split between George Wallace and the uncommitted. One hundred delegates will be selected today.

Party members could nominate themselves for delegate slots apportioned to their district. The number of slots for each district is based on population, party membership and other factors.

After nominating statements are filed, representatives of presidential candidates may eliminate anyone who wants to pledge to their candidate. Those representatives do not have to offer reasons for removal.

Once the lists have been pared, they are turned over to the state party committee, which submits the names of acceptable nominees to districts' caucuses, where the party members choose among them.

Caucus officials were given the power to veto any potential delegates to prevent people from filing to represent presidential candidates they have no intention of backing at the national convention.

Despite knowledge of the delegate veto process, several party members said they never expected the veto power to be used as widely as it has been this year.

Some Democrats in the state protested, saying party leaders were being autocratic in the selection process. "We are attempting to mobilize Democratic rank-and-file party members all over the state to vote down the slate of delegates given us by the Udall and Carter campaigns in protest to the method by which these proposed delegates were selected," said Carol Jones, a Democratic member of the Ann Arbor City Council.

For Hart's U.S. Senate Seat

State's GOP Brass Back Esch

By MALCOLM JOHNSON, Associated Press Writer

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Four Republican congressmen and three state House members have endorsed Congressman Marvin Esch of Ann Arbor for the GOP nomination for the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by Philip Hart.

The endorsements Friday night were among the first significant movement toward any candidate in the four-way GOP race. All four candidates lobbied delegates to the Republican State Convention in search of support.

State Republicans gathered this weekend to choose delegates to represent President Ford and Ronald Reagan in August at the national convention in Kansas City.

Congressmen endorsing Esch were Gory Brown of Schoolcraft, Elford Coderberg of Midland, Edward Huthinson of St. Joseph and Philip Ruppe of Houghton. The other Michigan GOP congressmen — Guy Vander Jagt and William Brownfield — did not lend their support.

The "name" state legislator siding with Esch was House Minority Leader Dennis Cawthorne of Manistee. Also backing Esch were Reps. John Engler of Mount Pleasant and John Mowal of Adrian.

The congressmen said Esch "would provide the needed strength at the top of the ticket" and stated, "He can win — and he can help other congressional and statehouse candidates to win in a unified effort."

The three state lawmakers stressed Esch's ability to win — a quality some GOP members say is unproven in the other Republican candidates.

Esch said he would contact other legislators. He said four have already been named to an

"Esch Legislative Coordinating Committee," but he did not list them as providing endorsements.

Also making the rounds were Esch's opponents, former Supreme Court Justice Thomas Brennan, former Congressman Robert Huber and University of Michigan Regent Deane Baker.

The convention will select 84 delegates and alternates to the Aug. 16-20 convention, with Ford and Reagan people fighting among themselves for the prized posts.

Ford will take 45 Michigan delegates to Kansas City, led by Gov. William Milliken, Sen. Robert Griffin and party Chairman William McLaughlin. A group of 29 delegates for Reagan will also be chosen, to be led by state Sen. John Wellborn, state campaign manager for Reagan.

The division of delegates was set by the results of Michigan's May 18 presidential primary, where Ford took a 63-33 per cent triumph.

After electing 39 Ford delegates and 18 Reagan delegates Friday night, the convention today will select the candidates' at-large delegation — 16 for Ford and 11 for Reagan.

Benton Father Charged With Cruelty To Son

A Benton township man Friday was arraigned in Berrien District court on charges of torturing and cruelty to his eight-year-old son.

Demanding examination of separate counts of cruelty in children and torturing children was Terry James Henry, 28, of 411 North Crystal avenue.

Henry was arrested Friday afternoon by officers of the Benton Harbor police department in connection with injuries allegedly received by Henry's son, Terry James Jr. He was jailed in lieu of $15,000 bond.

Three other young men were given extended jail sentences after being found guilty in two separate cases involving possession of marijuana and conspiracy to commit petty larceny.

John Steve Williams, 25, of 5876 Lincoln road, Stevensville, was sentenced to 365 days in the county jail for possession of marijuana Feb. 11 in St. Joseph. Williams, who already was serving a 45-day sentence for driving while intoxicated, also had a one-year probation revoked on that conviction and was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

Sentenced to 120 days in jail each for conspiracy to commit petty larceny were two 18-year-olds - from Auburn, Maine - Steven Charles Hussey and Robert Louis Levasseur.

The charges, reduced from breaking and entering, stemmed from the theft of beer, cigarettes and food May 18 from Pipestone Creek golf course on Naomi road in Pipestone township.

Also sentenced were: Billie William Johnson, 24, Elmhurst, Ill., $155 or 30 days in jail for driving while intoxicated.

Needle Smith Jr., 21, Maywood, Ill., $250 or 90 days for possession of an unregistered gun.

Arthur Allen Coburn, 20, 1425 East John Beers road, St. Joseph township, 45 days for petty larceny.

Linda Louise Fields, 28, 116 Meadow lane, Berrien Springs, $75 for filing a false police report.

Sentenced for the following violations were:

Use of marijuana - William A. Penn, 18, Mishawaka, Ind.; Dennis J. Ratajczak, 22, South Bend; and Donald J. Prsbylski, 19, South Bend, each $50.

Impaired driving - Robert Charles Kays, 21, Route 2, Hartford and Douglas Raymond Shula, 29, Parchment, each $152 or 30 days.

Assault and battery - Richard Muri Nichols, 24, 437 Cedar street, Benton Harbor, $50 or 20 days; William Earl Kelley, 24, 711 Highland, Benton Harbor, $50 or 10 days.

FCC Rejects Democrat's Complaint Against WKZO

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Federal Communications Commission on Friday rejected a 6-to-4 complaint by Rep. Donald W. Riegle that a Kalamazoo television station denied him reasonable access to the air in his Senate campaign.

Riegle, a Democrat, is seeking the seat being vacated by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich. The Michigan primary is scheduled for Aug. 3.

Riegle contended that WKZO-TV violated the law by refusing to allow him to purchase five-minute political programs during prime and early fringe time.

The congressman said he planned a media campaign consisting of broadcasts on successive weeks in the major television markets in Michigan.

He said that although other stations had accepted the programs, WKZO-TV offered to sell five minutes only on Saturday and Sunday afternoons and only 30 minutes during early fringe and prime time.

WKZO-TV said that since its programming is scheduled in half-hour blocks during prime and early fringe time, it would be disruptive to broadcast five-minute programs during those times.

It pointed out, however, that it had offered to sell Riegle 30-minute programs during early fringe and prime time, five-minute programs at other times, as well as various spot announcements.

The law provides that the FCC may revoke a station's license for willful or repeated failure to allow reasonable access to a candidate for federal office.

It can also take such action for refusal to permit purchase of reasonable amounts of time by a legally qualified candidate for federal office.

The FCC said that neither the Communications Act nor FCC rules require broadcast stations to sell specific periods of time for political broadcasts.

The commission found no circumstances to suggest that the reasonable access law requires a station to sell such time. Indeed, the FCC said, since enactment of the reasonable access provision it has reaffirmed its position that candidates are not entitled to any particular length of time.

The FCC found no circumstances in Riegle's case that necessitate any departure from that policy.

While it respected Riegle's belief that the program times offered by WKZO-TV were not suited to his planned campaign, the commission said it did not appear they could be considered unreasonable under FCC precedent and the facts of the case.

U.S., Mexico Eye Prisoner Exchange

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) - The possibility of a swap of U.S. citizens imprisoned on drug charges in Mexico for Mexican drug offenders held in the United States has been raised in talks here between Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and Mexican officials.

The idea, it was learned, was one of "a number of rather ingenious and interesting proposals" Kissinger said he received Friday from the Mexicans. "Intensive discussions" on the prisoner exchange were to begin shortly.

Mexican authorities have been accused of mistreating the 500 Americans imprisoned in Mexico and of preventing access for U.S. consular officials and attorneys.

Kissinger, who was spending two days here, told a news conference that an even larger number of Mexicans are in U.S. jails. He said the objective of negotiations with Mexico is "to alleviate the general situation of individuals being held in prison in a foreign country."

In a joint communiqué, the talks between Kissinger and Mexican President Luis Echeverria were described as "warm and friendly," focusing on the urgent need for international economic cooperation.

"They were in agreement that the gap between the rich and poor countries is a danger to peace, as ominous as, an unbridled arms race," the statement said.

On behalf of President Ford, Kissinger invited Jose Lopez Portillo, the Mexican president-designate, to visit the United States some time after he takes office Dec. 1.

At the news conference, Kissinger also said:

"The United States has not yet obtained 'conclusive confirmation' that Cuba intends to withdraw its combat forces from Angola. The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported from the Angolan capital of Luanda that another unit of Cuban troops had left for Havana as part of a continuing withdrawal."

"There is no evidence of Cuban military intervention in Jamaica, Guyana or elsewhere in the hemisphere."

"He would not make any judgment on the future of human rights in Chile, until Chile's military government publishes a promised constitutional act dealing with the subject."

Kissinger and his wife, Nancy, were scheduled today to visit the Mayan archeological site of Uxmal in the Yucatan peninsula. Later they were to go to Cancun, a Caribbean resort island, and stay overnight before returning to Washington.

Kissinger flew here Thursday after participating in the annual general assembly of the Organization of American States in Santiago, Chile. At that meeting, Kissinger informed Chilean officials that relations with the United States would remain cool until Chile improves its treatment of some 4,000 political prisoners.

Thousands Of Carp Die In South Haven Swamp

By TOM RENNER
South Haven Correspondent

SOUTH HAVEN — Michigan's peculiar weather this spring is being blamed for a massive die-off of thousands of carp in a shallow swamp on the east side of the city of South Haven this week.

The die-off might be repeated in other shallow ponds in southwestern Michigan in the coming weeks, according to Stanley Hays, a DNR employee the past 28 years. He said he has never seen a fish die-off the magnitude of the one in South Haven.

The 20 to 25 acre swamp is ringed with dead carp, causing an odor problem on the city's east side and drawing swarms of flies to the area.

The carp spawn this time of the year and are from the nearby Black river, attracted through inlets to the swamp.

DNR officials have discounted poisoning as the reason for the die-off.

Hays and Chester Harvey, DNR district supervisor, said too weather earlier this spring, followed by the sudden hot weather, has contributed to a sudden growth of algae that is depriving the fish of oxygen.

In deep water ponds the fish would seek colder water to get more oxygen, but in shallow water situations the fish don't have a chance," Hays said.

He said the lack of oxygen would cause the fish to become disoriented, consequently making it difficult for them to get back through the inlets to the cooler Black river water.

The South Haven swamp averages two to three feet in depth.

Hays estimated that water in shallow ponds has warmed 30 to 35 degrees in the past week.

He said the warm nights this week were the major contributor to the oxygen problem.

"During daylight hours the sun caused the algae plants to replenish the oxygen in the water, but at night the growing algae consumed all the oxygen that was available," he said.

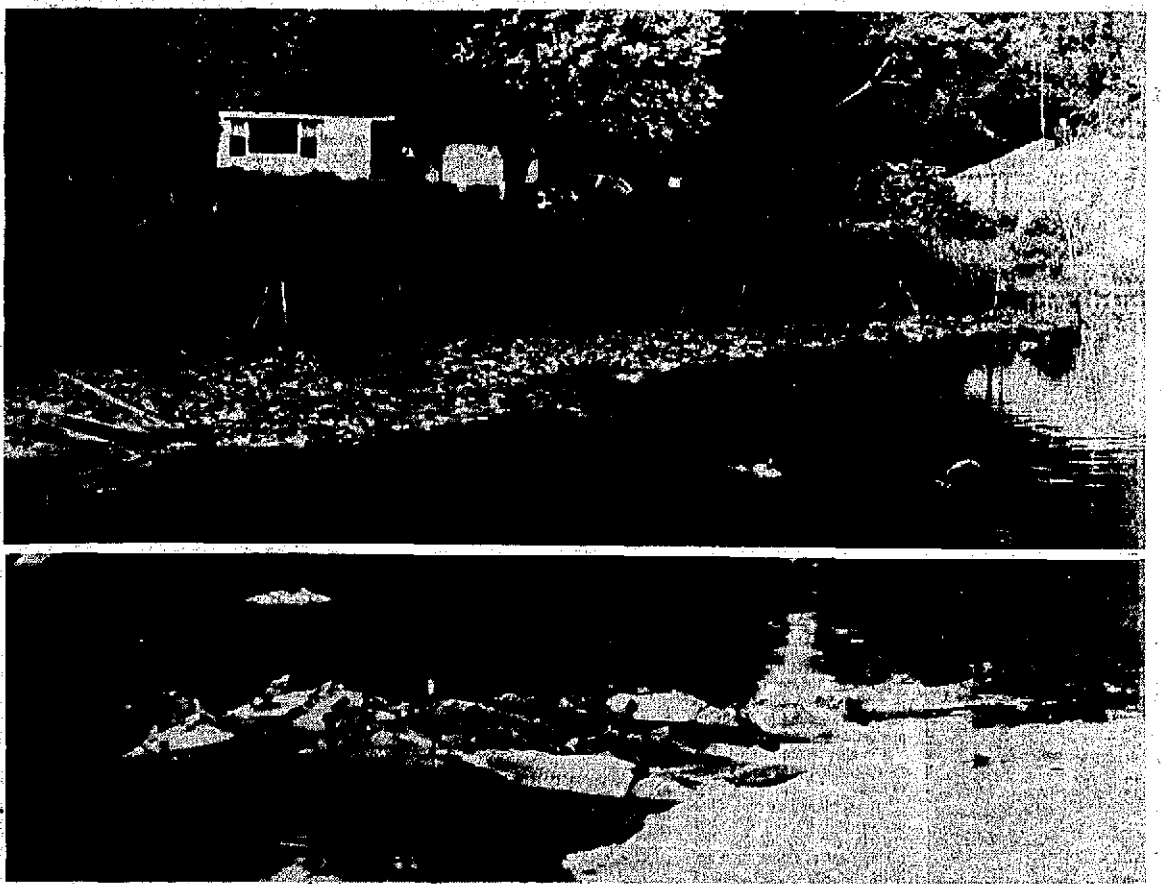

The die-off started Monday, but reached major proportions Thursday, according to neighbors. Most of the area is owned by South Haven radio station WJOR for its transmission towers. The rest of the area is owned by Michigan Fruit Canners company and individual adjoining property owners.

One property owner, John Van Wynen, spent most of yesterday burying several hundred dead fish that accumulated along his shoreline.

Hays said it would probably take a week to 10 days for the fish to naturally decompose. Meanwhile, he said, neighbors should brace themselves for a big stench.

Last night many of the houses in the area were coated with flies. WJOR and Michigan Fruit Canners hired an agricultural crop duster to spray the area this morning in an effort to eliminate the flies.

FISH DIE-OFF: Officers of Department of Natural Resources have blamed cold and hot weather extremes this spring for "phenomenal" algae growth that has been responsible for die-off of thousands of carp in shallow pond on east side of South Haven. Photo below shows clot of dead fish floating in pond while above photo shows dead fish ringing shoreline. Dead fish have caused odor problem and are drawing flies to area. (Tom Renner photos) onto their sides.

Bianchi said an investigation at the Red Arrow highway railroad crossing, approximately 1 1/2 miles east of the city, turned up marks in the wood ties indicating the wheels of at least one car left the tracks just a few feet west of the crossing.

A closer check of the railroad track along the area heading toward the downtown business district showed extensive damage to wooden crossings along the rail caused by the wheels dragging along the area, Bianchi said.

Several people witnessed the derailment. Mrs. Robert (Carol) Sonnenberg, box 456, Hill Road, Watervliet, was waiting at the Red Arrow highway crossing for the train to pass when she saw a cloud of dust and the wheels of a car beginning to derail as the train passed the crossing.

Ray Catania and his wife Jeanette, box 884, County Line road, Watervliet, said they saw the cars of the train rocking back and forth then saw a set of wheels jump off the tracks, creating a cloud of dust and throwing rocks into the air.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Covey, 461 Hubbard, South Haven, told Watervliet police they observed the back end of the freight with the wheels off the tracks, then saw a cloud of dust when the carrier cars flipped over near Regal's motor sales.

All of the derailed cars landed on the north side of the tracks.

The train engineer, Roger Allen Grigsby, of Dorr, Mich., told Bianchi he felt the train jerking a little, then felt the train's emergency brake system grab hold.

Conductor Mike Rau of Wyoming, Mich., told police he felt the train pass over a rough spot at the Red Arrow highway crossing.

Near the scene of the derailment, four employees of the Regal body shop quickly left the building after hearing an unusual sound as the train passed.

Shop manager Neil Beckwith could only describe the noise as "being different than usual." No one was hurt and the building was not damaged.

Frank Regal, owner of Regal's Lincoln-Mercury, and former Watervliet Mayor Robert Flaherty, commented on the derailment.

Regal said he had previously observed the rails along the stretch near his business and used car lot raised up and down as trains passed through the vicinity for quite a while. "The height the rails raised depended on the speed of the train," he added.

Flaherty, who last year criticized the condition of the rails along the Main street crossing — saying it endangered the railroad depot, Watervliet city hall and fire department — said he repeated the criticism Wednesday night during a Watervliet fire board meeting.

Railroad police stood guard at the derailment site overnight to prevent looting.

Thrifts reported to Berrien Harbor police:

— Stereo equipment valued at $210 from the home of David Nash, 647 East High Street.

— A television set, radio, tape player and food totalling $133 from the home of Willie Deloney, 124 Catalpa Avenue.

Thrifts reported to Berrien Harbor police:

— Thirty-five sheets of plywood, valued at $700, from the site of a new home under construction at 2791 Kerlikowsky road, Hagar township, by John Fulton of Marcellus.

— A $50 radio, stolen from John Braun, 5533 Red Arrow highway, Stevensville, while Braun was swimming at Glenford beach, Lincoln township.

Deputies said a 1964 pickup truck found abandoned at 8:23 a.m. Friday, at M-140 and True road, Berrien township, was found to have been stolen earlier from Muncie, Ind. The owner was not identified.

POLICE ROUNDUP

Suspected Shoplift Accomplice Arrested

Mike Swisher, a security guard at the Bargain Center, 1813 M-134, Benton township, didn't succeed in handcuffing an alleged shoplifter—but he was able to apprehend an alleged accomplice during a scuffle outside the store last night.

Swisher told the troopers from the Benton Harbor state police post he chased, and caught a man who allegedly left the store, wearing a new pair of trousers under blue jeans. Swisher said he was trying to apply handcuffs, when jumped by a second man.

The alleged shoplifter fled in an auto, but Swisher apprehended the alleged accomplice.

Booked on charges of conspiracy to commit larceny and assault and battery against a police officer was J.B. Wotherspoon, 48, of 437 Vineyard street, Benton Harbor.

The post said Swisher suffered scratches on the left arm, but was not hospitalized. The post said Swisher is an officer with the Pipestone township police department and also works as a security officer at the Bargain Center.

The post was called at 8:25 p.m. by another state security officer, Eugene Schubert. Schubert said he tried to apprehend the shoplifting suspect but was pushed away. Schubert phoned the post while Swisher gave chase. It was reported.

Benton Harbor police Friday investigated vandalism at Ned Gates Chevrolet, Inc., 300 West British avenue, where rocks were reported thrown at a 1978 pickup truck, parked in the lot. Police said the windshield was cracked.

Thrifts reported to Berrien Harbor police:

— Stereo equipment valued at $210 from the home of David Nash, 647 East High Street.

Opinion

Eaman, appointed chairman of the commission last week, said that if all five members do appear, the three temporary appointments might be made again, since Kelley's opinion stated that although a quorum must meet to fill vacancies, "the affirmative vote of only three of these five members is necessary to fill a vacancy."

Those receiving temporary appointments last week were Leonard Anderson, commissioner-at-large; Mary Thomas, Third Ward commissioner; and Norbert Cramer, Second Ward commissioner.

Kelley also ruled that a provision in Benton Harbor's city charter vacating the seat of any commissioner missing five consecutive meetings applies only to regular meetings, which under the charter are to be held once a week.

Mrs. Ford missed five consecutive meetings before appearing last Monday for the first time since the recall election, but only two of those would qualify as regular meetings according to Kelley's ruling.

The Benton Harbor city commission has a regular membership of nine, which will be filled by election of four new members on Aug. 3.

Student Record Ruling

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Colleges or universities that receive federal funds must in most cases let present or former students look at their records, the attorney general has ruled. However, if an institution does not receive federal funds, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said Friday, it is not legally required to provide the information unless there is a subpoena or court order. Kelley said "federally funded institutions of higher education have to make the records available except when financial records of a student's parents, certain confidential letters of recommendation or other specified records are involved. Kelley said the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 required all federally funded educational institutions to make most records available at the student's request, with the listed exceptions. The opinion was requested by state Rep. John Markes, D-Westland, on behalf of the Livonia Education Association.

Griffin Floor Manager

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Michigan Sen. Robert Griffin said Friday his appointment as President Ford's floor manager at the Republican national convention means he will join the Ford team in seeking delegates in state caucuses before the August convention. But Griffin eased away from an earlier statement that he was unsure whether he could support Ronald Reagan should the former California governor be nominated in Kansas City. "I have always supported the party nominee and I would expect to again," Griffin said. Griffin thus joins most of the GOP hierarchy in Michigan in reluctantly agreeing they would support Reagan if he were nominated. The one holdout so far has been Gov. William Milliken, who says he is leaving the door open on his support should Ford lose.

Dune Buggy Crash Claims One Victim

(SOUTH HAVEN — Norman Overhiser, 50, route 4, South Haven died early today from injuries suffered June 5 when two dune buggies collided on a Geneva township road.

Overhiser died of head injuries at Borgess hospital, Kalamazoo at approximately 1:30 a.m., according to state police from the South Haven post.

The death was the 11th on Van Buren county roads in 1976.

Troopers said Overhiser was driving a dune buggy that rolled over after colliding with another dune buggy driven by Kim Schultz, 21, route 4, South Haven on 87th street near CR-888. Troopers said the vehicles collided while approaching a private drive.

Schultz was initially ticketed for careless driving but other charges are now pending the results of an autopsy, police said.

Postal Aid Bill

Over 1st Hurdle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Financial aid for the Postal Service is past one hurdle, but it remains doubtful whether the financially-ailing agency will get the extra funds it says it needs.

The Senate Post Office Committee approved $1 billion for the debt-ridden agency on Friday. The funds are designed to keep the Postal Service from going bankrupt while a new commission formulates recommendations on what to do about its problems.

SIX TO EIGHT MILLION IN NATION

Illegal Aliens A Threat To U.S.?

By PATRICK CONNOLLY
Associated Press Writer
GAYLORD, Mich. (AP) — The nation's immigration chief says the illegal presence of millions of aliens in America

"is a major threat to our nation and our way of life."

Leonard F. Chapman Jr., commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization Service, said Friday the flow of illegal aliens into the United States is "hopelessly out of control."

He pegged the number of aliens in the U.S. at six million to eight million and said the vast majority, nearly six million, are from Mexico.

He said the problem is "as serious as" the aggression, internal strife, depression and inflation the country has suffered in 200 years.

Chapman said there are less than 2,000 enforcement officials to guard America's 8,000 miles of open border, making "the immigration laws of this country...unenforceable."

The official called for federal action to outlaw hiring of illegal aliens. Such action is proposed in two bills now before Congress.

The number of illegal aliens is increasing by 500,000 to one million each year, he said, and at least three million are holding jobs — "a serious matter, considering there are seven million unemployed Americans today," Chapman said.

In an address to the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Association, Chapman criticized the apparent lack of public concern for what he called "the silent invasion...taking place mainly at night across all our unprotected borders."

About two-thirds of the persons arrested by immigration officials are working at industry, service and construction jobs, paying good salaries, Chapman said.

Two Greek brothers who deserted their merchant ships were arrested earning $8.71 an hour repainting the Statue of Liberty, Chapman said.

Illegal immigration costs taxpayers about $13 billion a year in services, welfare, unemployment and costs to citizens who require public assistance and are displaced from jobs.

Illegal aliens send $1 billion each year out of this country, he said, and "hundreds of millions of dollars each year are lost from the federal treasury because aliens pay little if any income tax."

The desire to flee from impoverished countries to America "spurs" lucrative rackets, such as sham marriages for aliens, Chapman said.

A Texas man recently was arrested for arranging 3,500 such marriages at $1,600 each, Chapman said.

The immigration chief also recommended:

—More manpower and material to enforce current immigration laws.

—Tightening welfare requirements to avoid illegal aliens trying to "take advantage of public giveaway programs."

Miss Longet had lived in nearby Starwood, an exclusive area, with pro-skiier "Spider" Sabich and is currently facing charges in his shooting death in March. She pleaded innocent this week to a manslaughter charge in connection with the death, and is now awaiting trial. (AP Wirephoto)

BH Flag Design Contest Underway

McDonald's restaurant of Benton Harbor in conjunction with the Benton Harbor city administration is sponsoring a "Design a Benton Harbor City Flag Contest."

It's open to all residents of Benton Harbor, showing proof of residency. There is no age limit and all entries will be judged in theme only. The design, however, must be on a white background to facilitate production of the winning entry. It is also recommended that the flag design be of three colors or less.

"The spirit and concept of the design will be the deciding criteria for considering the winning entry, rather than artistic ability," says James Peoples Jr., city manager.

"After all," Peoples said, "what is a famous city without a city flag? Especially in this Bicentennial year. Our citizens have developed an awareness of the national Bicentennial flag, as well as a re-awakened consciousness of the United States Flag as it is today and as it was in 1776."

"Developing a flag for Benton Harbor will tie the community into the Bicentennial Celebration in more than just a spiritual way. We will be celebrating with a project of our own." Bob Schadler, manager of Benton Harbor McDonald's, explained the winning designer will receive one $100 U.S. savings bond and one 3 by 5-foot nylon flag of the winner's design.

The city will receive a commemorative plaque engraved with the flag designer's name and twenty 3 by 5-foot nylon flags.

The flags and plaque will become the property of the city to be displayed as the city chooses.

Entry forms are available at the Benton Harbor McDonald's. Designs must be submitted by June 30 to the McDonald's restaurant. The winner will be announced July 4 and the finished flags will be received by Aug. 14.

Contest judges are from the city.

McDonald's of Benton Harbor, under the direction of the Benton Harbor city administration, is underwriting and administering the contest.

Meetings To Focus On Drain Problems

Two informational meetings will be held next week in Chikaming township to discuss drainage problems and possible solutions, Berrien Drain Commissioner Carl F. Gnodtke has announced.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday, June 15, at the Chikaming school starting at 7:30 p.m. for residents of the Indian Trails subdivision and adjacent farm property.

The other meeting will be held Thursday, June 17, at 7:30 p.m. in Chikaming township hall to discuss drainage problems in Indiana Park Lodge and the Wolcott avenue area.

Gnodtke stressed that the meetings are not official, but said engineers who have studied the problems will be on hand to present various alternatives to residents of the areas involved.

Buchanan Boy, 3, Is Mauled By Dog

BUCHANAN — A three-year-old rural Buchanan boy was listed in good condition at Pawling hospital, Niles, today after being mauled by a dog near his home Thursday.

State police from the Niles post said Steven Moudie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moudie, Box 98, Galien-Buchanan road, Buchanan, suffered severe cuts on the back of his head and neck when bitten by a neighbor's hunting dog, a German shorthair.

Police said the child wandered into the yard of next door neighbor, A.D. Adams, also of Galien-Buchanan road, about 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

Adams, who told police he was also in the yard, said the child stumbled and fell in front of the chained dog.

Adams told police the dog was apparently startled by the falling child and attacked. He told police the eight-year-old dog was normally gentle, but was not used to being around children. Police said the dog had been vaccinated for rabies.

Open House At Bangor Fire Hall

BANGOR — The Bangor fire department will hold an open house and ice cream social at the fire hall Sunday from 2 to 7 p.m., according to Mrs. Perry Foster, president of the ladies auxiliary.

Firemen will provide tours and equipment demonstrations, and ice cream and pie will be sold. The event is a fund-raising activity for the Bangor Bicentennial committee.

DOUBLE HONOR: Charles Reinhardt, 6510 Red Arrow highway, Coloma, last night was named Coloma Lion of Year for 1975-76 and then was installed as president of Coloma Lions club for 1976-77. Other officers installed include Dale Kreithner, first vice president; Charles Krenek, second vice president; Ray Wall, third vice president; James Chapman, secretary; John McCrery Jr., treasurer; Wayne Kreithner, tall twister; and Gilbert DuVernay, lion timer.

Suit Seeks $100,000 In Damages

A Benton Harbor woman has filed suit in Berrien Circuit court seeking $100,000 in damages as the result of an accident in which her young daughter was seriously injured three years ago.

Emma Louise Patrick of 606 Highland avenue seeks the damages from the driver of a car that struck her daughter, Tia Catrice, while she was crossing Highland on June 20, 1973.

The daughter, then two years old, suffered cuts, bruises and a fractured skull, according to the suit, and underwent brain surgery at Borgess hospital in Kalamazoo.

In the suit, Mrs. Patrick contends that the driver was negligent and seeks damages for temporary and permanent injuries and paid and for unknown expense of future operations for the girl.

Named as defendant and identified as driver of the car is Willie Bailey Evans, 48, 207 South Seeley, Benton Harbor.

WEST POINT GRAD: James Howard Wooley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wooley, Coloma, recently graduated from Military academy at West Point, N.Y., and received a commission as second lieutenant in Army. He will report to Fort Sill, Okla., where he will become a part of the Field Artillery Cannon Battery.

Five Seeking Three Seats On River Valley Board

MRS. MARY RAY

JOHN W. SCHWARK

ARTHUR T. SMITH

Voters Also Will Decide Fate Of 11.8-Mill Tax Renewal

THREE OAKS — Five candidates, including one incumbent, seek three seats on the River Valley school board in the upcoming annual school election Monday.

Voters will also decide the fate of a three-year 11.8 mill property tax renewal levy for operations. The millage expired with the 1975 tax collection.

If approved the 11.8 mills would raise approximately $763,000 a year toward the 1976-77 tentative operating budget of $2,671,386. If approved, the district's total millage rate would remain the same as last year at 25.1 mills.

Up for election are two, four-year seats, and one, two-year term on the school board.

Seeking the two, four-year seats are Mrs. Mary Ray, John W. Schwark, and Arthur T. Smith. Seeking the one, two-year seat are incumbent Larry Mitchell and Mrs. Nancy Maher.

Incumbents George Lozmack and Mrs. Doris Rice are not seeking re-election. Lozmack has served on the River Valley board since its inception and Mrs. Rice one full term.

Candidates seeking the two, four-year seats include: Mrs. Ray, 44, Indian Trail road, route 1, Three Oaks, is a housewife and associate realtor with Berrier Real Estate, St. Joseph. She and her husband, Floyd, have four children. She was a school teacher for 16 years in Chicago and served eight years as a member of the Local Diocese school board there.

Schwark, 37, 207 Cedar street, Three Oaks, is Three Oaks postmaster. Several years ago he served one year on the River Valley school board as an appointee. He is not currently a board member. He and his wife, Barbara, have four children.

Smith, 33, route 1, Three Oaks, is a guidance counselor in the Lakeshore public schools, Stevensville. He and his wife, Judy, have two sons.

Candidates seeking the one-year term include: Mitchell, 38, route 1, Buchanan, (New Troy area), was appointed to the board last

MRS. NANCY MAHER

LARRY MITCHELL

August to complete the year for Joseph Hood, who moved from the area. Mitchell owns and operates a mold and die shop in Buchanan. He and his wife, Marlene, have three children. Mrs. Maher, 31, route 1, Sawyer, is a housewife. She and her husband, Daniel, have four children. She is a former associate editor of the magazine "Modern Cities." Polls at the high school will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Dowagiac Voters To Fill 3 Vacancies

DOWAGIAC — Dowagiac school district voters will fill three openings on the school board from a field of six candidates in the annual school election June 14.

Four candidates have squared off in a race for two, four-year terms and two candidates are facing each other for a single two-year term.

Seeking the four-year terms are incumbent Richard Sifford and challengers Ned Sutherland, James D. Foch and Antoinette Morrison.

Voters may vote for any two of the four-year candidates. The top two vote-getters win the seats.

Incumbent Wilton Wyman Jr. will face Donald Willming for the two-year seat. The top vote-getter wins.

Not seeking re-election is Kirby Dean Smith.

Sifford, 57, has served four years on the board and is its secretary. He has been a Postal service employee in Dowagiac for 28 years. He and his wife, Dorothy, live at 519 Main street. They have one daughter.

Sutherland, 41, is director of vocational education for the Lewis Cass intermediate school district. He and his wife, Lou, reside at 403 Main street, and they have four children.

Foch, 68, is a retired iron worker. He and his wife, Joyce, live at Indian lake. They have six children.

Miss Morrison, 34, is an English and reading instructor at Southwestern Michigan college, Dowagiac. She lives at 301 Colby street, Dowagiac.

Wyman, 32, was appointed to the board last year. He is a senior cost estimator at Sundstrand Heat Transfer corporation, Dowagiac, and is treasurer of the firm's employee credit union. He and his wife, Crystal, live on Dutch Settlement road, route 3, Dowagiac, and they have three daughters.

His opponent, Willming, is also employed at Sundstrand. Willming, 35, is a maintenance department supervisor and has served as president of U.A.W. local 1218. He and his wife, Darlene, and their two sons live on Dutch Settlement road.

Ballots will be cast from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at five polling places within the district.

Voters in the city of Dowagiac vote at the high school library; Keeler and Bainbridge townships vote at Sister Lakes school; Berrien and Pokagon townships vote at Patrick Hamilton school; Silver Creek and Pipestone townships vote at the Silver Creek township hall; Wayne, LaGrange and Volinia townships vote at Kitchelme school.

Customized 1940 Cycle Is Stolen

SOUTH HAVEN — City police are investigating the theft of two vehicles including an expensive customized motorcycle valued at $3,000 by its owner.

Daniel W. Phillips, 329 Eagle street, reported the theft of a 1940 Harley-Davidson motorcycle from the front yard of his home sometime between 4 a.m. and noon Friday.

The cycle had been featured in a national motorcycle magazine.

Douglas Larson, South Haven, reported the theft of his half-ton pickup and camper from the parking lot of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Co., plant 6, where he is employed. The theft occurred between 8 p.m. last night and 2 a.m. today, according to the owner.

VAN BUREN YOUTH FAIR ADDITION: Construction is expected to be completed within a week on 60 by 96-foot addition to youth exhibits building at Van Buren county youth fairgrounds between Lawrence and Hartford. Addition will cost about $25,000 and will bring to about $250,000 total value of youth fair buildings and grounds, according to Duane Castor, president of youth fair board.

Construction of all buildings has been financed by fair profits, donations and volunteer help. Still to be built in years to come, Castor said, are second commercial exhibits building, three more horse shelters, a maintenance building and more restrooms. Youth fair this year is July 26-31. PBB TAINTS SALMON, TROUT

Skimp On Fish, State Warns

By SUSAN AGER
Associated Press Writer

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — The state health department is urging Michigan residents to eat no more than one meal a week of PCB-contaminated Lake Michigan salmon and trout, although it found no health problems directly linked to PCB.

The warning, first issued several years ago, came again Friday after results were released of a two-year study of persons who ate PCB-tainted fish.

The study of 161 persons who ate varying amounts of Lake Michigan fish showed those who ate more fish had more of the industrial chemical, polychlorinated biphenyl, in their bodies. It also found the chemical did not disappear from the bodies of heavy fish eaters who abstained for as long as nine months.

But persons given blood tests in Traverse City, Manistee, Ludington and South Haven, and asked for their medical histories, showed no symptoms that could be linked with PCB, said state health director Dr. Maurice Reizen.

Reizen said he was asking people to continue skimping on Lake Michigan fish because PCB has "a potential for trouble." He warned pregnant women not to eat any sport-caught Lake Michigan fish.

Like its chemical cousin, PBB, which has poisoned thousands of Michigan farm animals, PCB tends to linger and build up in the body. Though it is present in all Great Lakes fish, Reizen said, PCB has been dumped as industrial waste must frequently into Lake Michigan.

The toxic chemical is most prevalent in trout and salmon because of their high fat content and diets. Whitefish and perch in Lake Michigan are not as contaminated, he said, while commercial fish sold in Michigan supermarkets and restaurants is regulated by the FDA and "presumed safe."

"Personally, I don't think it (the PCB situation) is as frightening as those individuals who smoke cigarettes," said Reizen.

The industrial chemical has been manufactured for 40 years, he said, and has led to no identified cases of cancer in the United States.

The state's study showed most people who regularly ate more than one meal of fish a week from Lake Michigan had more than the federal Food and Drug Administration recommendation for safe amounts of PCB.

The FDA, which funded the $24,000 study, says persons should eat no more than one milligram of PCB per kilogram of body weight. One pound equals 2.2 kilograms.

The state's study found those who ate the most fish averaged 1.7 milligrams, or 1,700 parts per billion, PCB in their bodies. A control group from Algonac on Lake St. Clair, where fish have very low PCB levels, had an average of only 17 parts per billion, the study showed.

A Michigan law that will take effect next year will progressively restrict the manufacture, sale or use of products containing the industrial chemical.

Sales Rebound

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Heavy-duty truck sales, in a steep decline since 1974, are now on the upswing and could reach near-record levels in 1977, a General Motors Corp. official said Friday.

"With heavy-duty serving as the backbone of the nation's commercial transportation system, the upturn is a sound indication that the national economic recovery is being sustained."

Next Week Last Chance For LMC Registration

Last opportunity to register for Lake Michigan College summer school courses will be June 14, 15, and 16, according to Dr. Thomas P. McCourt, LMC registrar.

"This is our normal late registration period, designed especially to enable those whose summer plans have changed to still enroll in LMC summer classes," Dr. McCourt said.

The late registration will take place in the LMC admissions office, room C-201, on the Napier avenue campus from 9 a.m. to noon, 1 to 4 p.m., and 5 to 7 p.m.

Robby Delivers In Pinch 13th Inning Home Run Nips White Sox

CLEVELAND (AP) — Player-manager Frank Robinson hit a two-out, two-run pinch home run in the 13th inning Friday night to give the Cleveland Indians a come-from-behind 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Chicago had scored a run in the top of the 13th off winner Jim Kern, 5-2, on an infield single by Bill Stein. But the Indians came back when Larry Blanks led off with a single and not four hits of the night — and one out later, Robinson hit his first homer of the season.

The blast off loser Terry

Forster, 1-3, was the 584th of Robinson's 21-year career.

Kern, the third Cleveland pitcher of the night, went the final 1 2/3 innings in relief of Dave LaRoche.

The Indians scored twice in the first inning against Chicago starter Ken Brett. Blanks tripled to center and George Hendrick drove him home with a two-out single. Hendrick moved to third on a Rico Carty single and scored on Buddy Bell's single.

The White Sox got back one run in the second. Downing hit into a fielder's choice, then stole second. Rich Coggins grounded to the first baseman, who threw to Jackie Brown covering first, but the ball got by the pitcher for an error which allowed Downing to score.

Downing got the second White Sox hit of the night in the seventh, tying the game at 2-2 with his third homer of the season.

Meanwhile, a weird play in the Oakland-Milwaukee games brought a protest from A's manager Chuck Tanner.

"A ball lodging in the catcher's mask, protector or uniform is a live ball and in play," — Rule 5.09, official baseball rulebook.

The problem was that no one in the crowded umpires' dressing room at Milwaukee's County Stadium could find it, and a protest of the A's' Brewers game may follow as a result.

An eighth-inning pitch thrown by Oakland reliever Paul Lindblad bounced in front of the plate, curmudgeoned off catcher Tim Lincecum's chest and lodged in the backstop's chest protector, with Milwaukee's Sixto Lezcano on third base and the score 3-2 in the Brewers' favor.

"Time," said plate umpire Dave Phillips, waving Lezcano home for a reason apparently still unknown to A's Manager Tanner, Oakland owner Charlie Finley and catcher Hosley.

"I know you can't win a protest over an umpire's judgment, but you can win a protest if their decision is not in the rulebook," said Tanner after the Brewers — with the unusual insurance run — scored a 4-2 victory Friday night.

In more state American League action Friday night, New York topped Texas 7-5, Kansas City blanked Baltimore 4-0, Minnesota bombed Boston 10-4 and Detroit edged California 4-3.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — "I've just got to hang in there," joked Tom Purtzer said.

"I've got to keep on hangin' on."

Purtzer, the surprising young man who led through three rounds of the Bicentennial Classic last week, gained a share of the top spot Friday with a four-under-par 68 that tied him with big, hard-hitting Jim Dent for the 36-hole lead in the weather-troubled, $250,000 Kemper Open Golf Tournament.

"I really don't understand it," said Purtzer, "a 24-year-old Arizona State product who hadn't even challenged before his sudden rush to the top last week. I don't know what's happening. I wish I did. I really wish I did. I've just got everything going. I'm feeling good and I'm putting good."

"I'll just try to hang in there and not get tight. What's gonna happen is gonna happen."

But a flock of four-toughed challengers, all of whom have been in the chase much more often than Purtzer, are in position to make a move.

"I'm putting good," warned Dent, who shared the lead at 136, eight under par on the Quail Hollow Country Club course. The one-time caddy at the Augusta National Golf Club reached two par fives in two and didn't make a bogey on his way to a second-round 68.

"I'm playing very, very well," said Ray Floyd, the Masters champion and defending title-holder here. He shot a second-round 67 that put him just four back at 140.

"I'm playing much better than I did at Dallas (where he won)," said Mark Hayes. "I'm very excited about the last two rounds."

Hayes, who had a second-round 69, was one of three tied at 138, just two shots off the pace. Also at that figure were former Masters champion Charles Coody, with a 70, and Beldigan's Gary Groh, with a 69.

The group at 139 included old pro Mason Rudolph, Hamner Blancas, Lon Hinkle, Joe Imman and Roger Maltbie.

Hinkle, along with Dent, was among the 75 players stranded on the course by a Thursday thunderstorm. They had to return early Friday morning to complete their first round. And Hinkle did it with a 29 on the back side that gave him a 65 for the round. He shot 74 in the second round. The happy-go-lucky Blancas had a 67, Rudolph 73, Imman and Maltbie 68 in hot, humid, hazy weather.

Arnold Palmer rallied for a 70 and qualified for the last two rounds at 144. South African Gary Player missed with a 147.

Packers Obtain Thomas

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers Friday obtained wide receiver Earl Thomas from the St. Louis Cardinals for an undisclosed future draft choice and announced signings of five players, including former University of Wisconsin-Platteville running back Tom Jakubowski.

Thomas has caught 102 passes for 1,616 yards, a 16 yard average, in five National Football League seasons, three with Chicago and two with St. Louis.

Jakubowski, a Milwaukee native, impressed the Packers staff during a special camp last month and was signed as a free agent. He rushed 53 times for 294 yards and four touchdowns and completed two of two passes for 60 yards and a touchdown for Platteville last season.

Also signed were linebacker Jerry Dandridge of Memphis State, the Packers' 13th round draft choice; rookie free agents Tim Black, placekicker from Buena Vista, and offensive tackle Larry Johnson of Albany State, Ga., and former New England Patriots' punter Bruce Batters.

uniform is a live ball and in play," — Rule 5.09, official baseball rulebook.

The problem was that no one in the crowded umpires' dressing room at Milwaukee's County Stadium could find it, and a protest of the A's' Brewers game may follow as a result.

An eighth-inning pitch thrown by Oakland reliever Paul Lindblad bounced in front of the plate, curmudgeoned off catcher Tim Lincecum's chest and lodged in the backstop's chest protector, with Milwaukee's Sixto Lezcano on third base and the score 3-2 in the Brewers' favor.

"Time," said plate umpire Dave Phillips, waving Lezcano home for a reason apparently still unknown to A's Manager Tanner, Oakland owner Charlie Finley and catcher Hosley.

"I know you can't win a protest over an umpire's judgment, but you can win a protest if their decision is not in the rulebook," said Tanner after the Brewers — with the unusual insurance run — scored a 4-2 victory Friday night.

In more state American League action Friday night, New York topped Texas 7-5, Kansas City blanked Baltimore 4-0, Minnesota bombed Boston 10-4 and Detroit edged California 4-3.

Graig Nettles hit two homers and had five RBI to pace New York's triumph over Texas. Bert Blyleven, going for his 100th career victory, ended up with his seventh loss in 11 decisions this year.

Al Cowens drove in two runs to back a combined four-hitter by Doug Bird and Mark Littell and hand Baltimore its seventh straight loss. Bird, who pitched seven innings, hasn't walked a batter in his last 31 innings.

Steve Driani's two-run single capped the six-run Minnesota first inning which helped the Twins overcome opening-frame homers by Red Sox Fred Lynn and Jim Rice.

Reliever Tom Burgmeier quieted the Boston bats on two hits over the last six innings, lowering his league-leading earned run average to 0.70 after taking over for Bill Singer.

Mitterwald Sparks Cub Win Perez On Rampage

From Associated Press.

Tony Perez is "mad" at Sparky Anderson and National League pitchers are paying for it.

Unhappy to be spending more time on the bench this year than in previous seasons, the Cincinnati first baseman has lashed his rage into an RBI rampage.

Perez, three-run homer in the ninth inning Friday night carried the Reds to an 8-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals and boosted his RBI total this year to 45 — an astronomical figure considering his dwindling playing time.

In the other National League games, the San Francisco Giants beat the Montreal Expos 5-0, the Los Angeles Dodgers stopped the Montreal Expos 7-4, the Philadelphia Phillies whipped the San Diego Padres 4-2, the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Atlanta Braves 6-2 and the Chicago Cubs outscored the Houston Astros 8-3.

The Reds, who trailed 5-0 after the first inning, went into the ninth down 7-5. Ken Griffey led off with a single, Joe Morgan walked and Perez drilled his eighth home run of the season to give the Reds their 15th victory in the last 20 games.

Right-hander John Montefusco fired a three-hitter for his third shutout of the season and Bobby Murcer and Marc Hill blasted homers, powering San Francisco over New York, Montefusco, winning for the first time in two weeks, struck out nine and never allowed more than one hit an inning while raising his record to 7-5 and lowering his ERA to 2.65.

Steve Garvey drove in three runs with a triple, double and single to lead Los Angeles over Montreal. The Dodgers used two errors by Larry Parrish to jump to a 3-1 lead after two innings as Don Sutton, with help from Charlie Hough, squared his season record at 8-6.

Jay Johnstone's leadoff homer in the eighth inning ignited a four-run rally and led Philadelphia past San Diego. Johnstone's third homer of the season tied the game at 1-1 and the Phillies then surged ahead off Padres reliever Butch Metzger on an RBI single by Garry Maddux and a two-run double by Mike Schmidt.

The victory let Jim Kaat improve his record to 3-2.

Bill Robinson, Richie Zisk and relief pitcher Bob Moose smashed home runs as Pittsburgh snapped a three-game losing streak with a victory over Atlanta. Pittsburgh scored twice in the fifth inning. Al Oliver beat out an infield single and went to third on Robinson's double. Oliver scored on Renie Stenmet's grounder and then Robinson scored on a wild pitch by Roger Moret, 2-2.

George Mitterwald rapped out four singles and drove in two runs Friday to lead the Cubs to an 8-3 victory over the Astros.

Mitterwald singled and scored the Cubs' first run in the second inning, singled and drove in a run in the Cubs' four-run fifth and singled in a run in the seventh when the Cubs wrapped up the game with three more runs.

Bill Bonham, 5-3, gained the victory although he needed help from Paul Reuschel in the seventh inning. Mike Cosgrove, who blanked the Cubs 1-0 in Houston last Friday, suffered his fourth loss against two triumphs.

Houston scored its first run in the fourth when Rob Andrews doubled and came all the way from second on an infield single by Jose Cruz.

The Astros scored again in the seventh when Jerry DaVanon tripled and came in on a wild pitch. DaVanon, filling in for regular shortstop Roger Metzger who was out because of a death in the family, committed a pair of throwing errors in the fifth.

DaVanon's second throwing error bounced into first baseman Bob Watson's face, and broke his nose.

Tigers Worm Win For Young 'Bird'

DETROIT (AP) — The early Bird got the worm, but only after the Detroit Tigers wormed out of their own mistakes — thanks to some by the California Angels in the bottom of the ninth inning.

Rookie Mark "Bird" Fidrych pitched his fifth consecutive complete game in as many starts and raised his record to 4-1 Friday night as Detroit nipped the Angels 4-3 in a rain-delayed baseball game.

The Tigers seemed bent on blowing a typically fine performance by Polish-American Fidrych — before a Polish-American Night crowd of 38,377. But in the end it was California which blew it for reliever Paul Hartzell (0-2) as Ron LeFlore scored the winning run on Jerry Remy's two-out throwing error in the ninth.

"When we got ahead 3-1, I said, 'I can taste victory,'" said right-hander Fidrych. "Then I flubbed up. Maybe that was the problem. I tasted victory too early. I shouldn't taste it until the ninth inning."

The outcome could have been decided earlier. But Tiger shortstop Chuck Scrivener dropped a Pedro Garcia throw at second base in the sixth to kill a probable inning-ending double play and the Angels got two runs to turn a 3-1 deficit into a 3-3 deadlock.

Scrivener made up for the mistake by making a diving stop of Mario Guerrero's infield single in the top of the ninth. Second baseman Garcia — in his first game as a Tiger — picked up the loose ball and threw home. Catcher Bruce Kimm caught the one-hopper, blocked the plate and tagged pinch-runner Rusty Torres.

"You don't often see three great plays on one ball like that," said Tiger Manager Ralph Houk, who was expected to send Vern Riffe, 4-2, to the mound today against Gary Rues, 3-7, of the Angels.

Eastern Michigan Edges Maine, 3-2

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — All that talk about Eastern Michigan's pitching and defense wasn't idle publicity. Just ask Maine, a 3-2 victim of the Hurons in the opening round Friday night of the 30th College World Series.

"They had the pitching and made the plays when it counted—that's the story of the game very simply," admitted Maine Coach John Winkler.

With ace right-hander Bob Owchinko on the mound, Eastern Michigan jumped to a 3-0 lead and appeared easily enroute to the second round against Clemson.

But pesky Maine erupted for two runs in the seventh and chased Owchinko. Sophomore Bob Welch came on and walked a batter to load the bases.

He ran the count to 3-2 on the next hit but then whirled and picked Dana Dresser off second base and followed with a strikeout to end the threat.

Welch, a 6-foot-3, 185-pound right-hander, was amazing in the next two innings. He faced seven batters and struck out six.

"This is a far cry from a year ago," he said. "Last year I got shelled in the series. I spent my one appearance watching South Carolina hit them off the fence."

The victory pushed the third-rated Hurons, 44-14, into a winners' bracket game Sunday night against Clemson, which used a 10-hit attack that included Bill Foley's three-run home run to slam Auburn 9-4.

Maine, 27-8, and Auburn, 37-14, tangled today in an elimination game of the eight-team tournament.

Top-ranked Arizona State, 62-8, meets Arizona, 51-16, and Oklahoma, 62-17, tests Washington State, 42-13, in the final first-round games Saturday night.

The crucial pickoff play is one of six his team has, said Eastern Michigan Coach Ron Oestrike.

"This one—called the 'slipper'—is used only when the tying run is in scoring position and a 3-2 count on the batter," he said. "I can't tell you how we call it, but it's been successful before."

Welch said when he turned around and threw he knew the runner "was a dead duck. He was 20 feet off the base."

John Sawyer, a junior left-hander, was the hard-luck loser. He pitched a five-hitter and what proved to be the winning run scored on a third-inning error.

Owchinko, first-round selection of San Diego in the summer draft earlier in the week, tired in the 90-degree heat but still picked up his 13th victory. He struck out eight.

The Clemson-Auburn clash

Radtke Powers Barchett's Win

Dave Radtke went four-for-six and Al Ott had two home runs in Barchett's 28-1 victory over Barabara Lumber.

In other South Branch YMCA men's softball action Friday, Jim Heeter went four-for-six in Miller's Market 14-12 triumph over Chick Haven.

Jerry Pawlickie went four-for-four in Bill's Tap 18-2 win over Ball Rubber and Oselka Marina topped Independence II 17-2.

started as a pitchers' duel. Clemson was hitless until the fourth, but erupted for four hits and five runs capped by Foley's homer.

Chuck Porter had spring rough spots but spaced 10 hits in go the distance and pick up the victory, his 12th in as many decisions.

"I had to go out a couple of times and remind him that the game was on the line—and so was his future," said Clemson Coach Bill Wilhelm, reminding that Porter was a seventh-round draft choice.

"This wasn't a typical game for us," he added. "Our bats aren't usually this loud. Usually we win with good pitching and good defense."

Senate and House conferees have agreed in principle to

Lake Placid TV Belongs To ABC

MONTREAL (AP) — Roone Arledge, president of ABC Sports, said he was confident all along that his television network would wind up with exclusive rights to the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y.

"Our position from the start was that there was no way they could get the Games, but they could cause a lot of mischief," he said Friday of CBS and NBC.

And indeed, they did. ABC and Lake Placid organizers agreed to a contract of some $10 million last February. But the other networks cried foul, and the International Olympic Committee decided to investigate.

On Friday, the IOC announced from Lausanne, Switzerland that it had given the nod to ABC. "This decision substantiates the choice made by the Lake Placid Olympic Organizing Committee in favor of ABC and is taken after the IOC Finance Commission has given ample opportunity to the other two American networks, CBS and NBC, to make an offer.

"After the two networks said they would were willing to pay more money than ABC but were not given the chance, they met in Paris with the IOC money men in April. And two IOC executives traveled to Lake Placid to check out the charges."

Arledge, in Montreal to promote ABC's coverage of the Summer Olympics, said that despite being on sound legal grounds in its rights to Lake Placid, the network increased its offer twice. He said it was increased at the request of organizers and again in an effort to seal the deal without further delay.

Gowen, who had an 8-2 record for Niles high school this spring, will report to Sarasota in the Class A Gulf Coast Rookie League next Thursday.

The 6-3, 170-pound Gowen will receive $500 a month for the duration of the Gulf Coast Rookie League season, which ends Sept. 1. He will also receive a $1,000 bonus.

Under terms of the contract, Gowen will also receive another $1,000 bonus when he reaches Class AA, $1,500 if he makes Class AAA and another $5,000 if he makes the major leagues.

Home Game TV Benefit

NFL Antiblackout Law Possibly Permanent

WASHINGTON (AP) — It won't come as any surprise to pro football fans, but the Federal Communications Commission says National Football League games are "one of the most popular types of programming on television today."

And the commission said the antiblackout law which permits telecast of sold-out home games has boosted, not hurt, ticket sales and can be considered a benefit to the viewing public.

The FCC, in its third annual report to Congress on the effects of the sport's antiblackout law, says about 30 per cent of all households in markets which support NFL teams watch their home team's televised games. It is 24 per cent more than watch normal Sunday TV fare and 10 per cent more than Monday prime-time programming.

"It is further apparent that most fans clearly prefer to watch the home team's televised games as opposed to games involving other NFL teams," said the report, released Friday. "This is particularly true when viewers are able to choose between the two."

"To illustrate, games involving other teams which were televised at the same time as were the home team games, but on a different network, were viewed in only six or seven per cent of all households in the market compared with an average 30 per cent who watched the home team's televised games."

Senate and House conferees have agreed in principle to make permanent the sports antiblackout law which permits the telecasting of any local professional event that is sold out two hours in advance. The law, enacted in 1973, expired after the 1975 NFL season.

In addition, the FCC said the lifting of the local television ban—an NFL policy before the law was enacted—increased the sale of season tickets.

"Contrary to the NFL's position on this issue, the results indicate that season ticket sales actually increased significantly when fans were able to see locally televised home games played during the preceding season."

"This is not particularly surprising," said the report. "The more television exposure a team receives, the greater the interest on the part of the fans. Moreover, since many people prefer to watch games live, the growing interest is translated into increased season ticket sales."

In describing the viewing of NFL games, the FCC said, "Games of other NFL teams which did not compete with the home teams' televised contests were viewed by about 19 per cent of all households in all 25 markets which support an NFL franchise. It is therefore apparent that televised games of most home teams attract substantially larger audiences than do televised games involving other NFL teams."

The report said the findings on viewer interest are indicative of the enormous popularity of football.

Yank Mercenary Says 'Problems' Drove Him

BY HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Special Correspondent
LUANDA, Angola (AP) — Gary Acker, an American mercenary on trial here for his life, told a court "I didn't come for money. I didn't come to fight communism. I came because of problems with my family and myself."

Acker, 21, of Sacramento, Calif., testified on the first day Friday of a show trial being held by the Marxist Angolan regime against him, Daniel Gearhart, 34, of Kensington, Md., and 11 other mercenaries who fought in the closing days of Angola's civil war. All are charged with murder, pillage and "destruction of Angola's property and natural resources."

The prosecutor demanded the death penalty. Acker denied a prosecution allegation that he "hated Communism," but admitted he wouldn't have fought for the winning Soviet-backed Popular Movement (MPLA) faction. In a soft-spoken voice, Acker said the Russians after World War II "killed three of my grandfather's nephews, put one of his nieces into a military brothel and sent another relation to Siberia."

The defendants, besides Acker and Gearhart, include 10 Britons and Argentine-born Gustavo Marcelo Grillo, 27, from Toms River, N.J. They were recruited in Britain, fought for the losing pro-Western side in the civil war and were captured in the closing days of the war.

Acker and Gearhart deny they ever fired their weapons or killed anyone in the Angolan conflict, which erupted last year after Portugal granted its former colony independence.

Acker said his problems began with his "strict disciplinarian father" who at one time "piled up a shotgun and put the barrel in my mouth" but couldn't go through with it. He later served in the U.S. Marine Corps where he said he ran afoul of a platoon leader whom he accused of persecuting him for going to the commanding officer with a complaint about theft in the barracks.

State Approves Oil Drilling In Forest

SAULT-STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP) — The state Natural Resources Commission agreed Friday to let three oil companies drill for oil and gas on 15,000 acres of the Pigeon River Country State Forest.

In addition, the companies will keep the right to seek drilling permits starting in 1981 on 6,000 acres of land in the northern two-thirds of the forest.

The companies did agree to a no-drill policy on 63,000 other acres in the northern part of the forest, one of the last wilderness areas in the Lower Peninsula. A spokesman for the Pigeon River Country Association, a citizens' group opposing drilling, said the oil companies got most of what they wanted. "Their seismic work has already told them (the oil companies) that little oil or gas is likely to exist in units 2, 3 and 4 (the northern part of the forest)," said the association's spokesman.

The commission's 3-1 vote eliminates a complicated story that began in 1968 when leases were first sold on land in the 90,000-plus acre forest.

Michigan Bean Crop In Danger

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — A lack of rain and drying warm winds have combined to parch the topsoil in the Saginaw-area bean belt, making the situation "borderline and acute," says an official of the Michigan

Bean Growers Association. John McGill Jr., executive secretary-treasurer of the group, said rain is needed this weekend because Thumb-area farmers report two-thirds of their crop has not been planted. McGill said Friday they must have moisture by next Tuesday, June 15, or they will be unable to plant the remainder of their crops. Aside from delaying planting, McGill said, the dry weather has halted the growth of seedlings already in the ground.

What is needed, he said, is a moderate to heavy rain dropping three-fourths to 1.5 inches of rain over a 24-hour period.

BUW Director Gets Post

W. Gary Baker, executive director of the Blossomland United Way, has been appointed to the planning committee for the 1977 United Way of Mid-America staff conference to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, next March.

BUW President Henry Tippett said the appointment represents national recognition for the local community fund. BUW volunteers have scored strong over-the-goal victories in the last three campaigns.

The Mid-American region includes the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and

New Mexico. Professional staff representatives from hundreds of independent United Way community funds meet every other year to learn the latest techniques of fund raising, planning, and allocations, Baker said.

Baker recently completed the second year of a three-year United Way of America personnel development program aimed at development of professional skills in community fund management.

The program committee is chaired by Solon Cousins, executive director of the Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy, Chicago. Baker will attend the first meeting of the committee in Cincinnati on June 12.

BERRIEN SPRINGS SCHOOLS

BH Firm Gets Roof Repair Jobs

BERRIEN SPRINGS — The Berrien Springs school board Thursday accepted the low bid of $10,200 from the Adams Roofing company, Benton Harbor, for repairs to defective roofs on three buildings. There were two other bidders for work, according to Stanley Macklin, director of business affairs. In other areas, the board accepted the low bid of $1,063 from the Cuthbert Tractor Sales company, Eau Claire, for a mower being purchased as a replacement. There were three other bids. Summer activity schedules were announced as follows: hearing impaired program is to run from June 21 to July 30, learning disabilities program is to run June 21 to July 29, and the migrant education program will begin June 14 and end Aug. 6. The board authorized Supt. Jon Schuster to seek applications for the post of assistant high school principal and athletic director.

Student-Administration Gap Bridged With BHHS Meetings

Benton Harbor Supt. Richard Helser has just concluded a semester of meetings with a high school advisory council of 10 students and found the sessions opened new lines of communication between administration and students. The advisory council was organized with Helser's backing to meet on a regular basis for students to discuss their experiences and make recommendations. So that students didn't feel threatened, high school staff members were asked not to attend unless invited. The "one-on-one" meetings with the district's chief administrator proved enlightening, says Helser. "We did not try to talk about individual personalities at the school," he reported, "but did try to identify areas of student concern before they became major problems. After a few meetings, the kids really opened up and our give-and-take conversations were helpful for both of us." After special student requests, the council did meet with members of the district's secondary counseling staff to discuss problems students found with the counseling process. Honors courses came under review, as well as minor "comfort concerns" such as the addition of a milk shake machine in the school cafeteria. "Generally the student concerns were typical of young people today," said Helser, "but they showed forward thinking and concern for future generations of students in many ways. For example, many of the high school students thought that the students themselves should have a greater role to play in the hiring and evaluating of teachers," he added. "Although this is impractical under current law, it clearly shows that students have strong opinions about the quality of their educations."

In another area, student influence may have helped firm a school decision to go to a more open enrollment procedure in the next few years, in which students would have greater freedom in selection of classes and teachers.

Gas Price Jumps Again

DEARBORN, Mich. (AP) — The average cost of regular fuel along major state tourist routes jumped six-tenths of a cent per gallon last week for the biggest weekly increase in the past 11 months, reports the Michigan auto club. The club, in its weekly "fuel gauge" survey of 300 major brand stations along main state highways, said regular gas averaged 61.1 cents per gallon, just 1.1 cents per gallon below the record 62.2 cents last summer. It was the eighth consecutive week fuel prices on major highways have risen. Prices have increased 2.6 cents during that period. No-lead fuel at stations surveyed also is up .6 cent over last week and now stands at 63.2 cents per gallon, with prices ranging from 56.8 to 68.9 cents.

Special Duck Stamp

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — A bill to protect Michigan's valuable wetlands has broken a year-long delay and won approval in a crucial Senate committee. The measure, pressed for by the state's duck hunters and environmentalists, was sent to the Senate floor Thursday by the Senate Conservation Committee. The bill passed the House last July, but sat in the Senate committee until members finally persuaded chairman Sen. Joseph Black, D-Ironwood, to take it up. The measure would require the state's 100,000 or so duck hunters to purchase a special stamp to provide money to enable the state to inventory — and ultimately buy — valuable marshes, swamps and other wetlands. Duck hunters want the wetlands protected to provide continued game, and environmentalists support the protection of fragile wildlife habitats and breeding grounds. Many of the wetlands — often regarded as ugly and useless — have been lost or are threatened with development.

Today In History

Here's The Answer

Q. — We will be moving within a few months and have started to pack many of our things, which we will be taking to our new home in one of those haul-away trailers. The only problem is that we have a piano on the second floor. Can you tell us the professional way to hoist the piano down from upstairs through a window? Our two teenage sons will help us with this.

A. — Forget about undertaking this portion of your moving project. First, most pianos will not fit through a conventional window. Even if your piano could, you'd be risking life, limb and the piano trying to lower it to the ground. Unless there are unusual circumstances, even professionals prefer to take a piano down a flight of stairs — and sometimes a moving company has to hire experts at this line of work.

Q. — Will a large attic fan work best if installed in the ceiling of the hall below the attic or if it is mounted directly alongside one of the louvers?

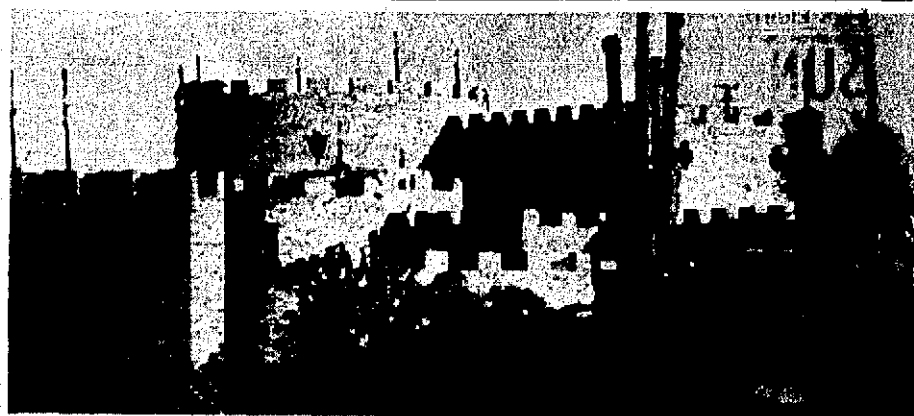

A. — In the ceiling of the hall.

Q. — In one of the old houses we have looked at recently (we are thinking about moving), there is a damp spot on the second-floor ceiling of a bedroom. It was there the first time we inspected the house and was still there a week later when we looked a second time. It's not a very big spot, perhaps no larger than a silver dollar, but we wonder what is causing it. Do you think it is serious?

A. — Have you asked either the house owner or the real estate broker? When you're buying a house, it's not very wise to be reticent about asking questions. In any case, the dampness is not likely to be condensation, since it is in such a small area. That leaves two possibilities — a leak in the roof or a drip from a pipe running through the ceiling. If the house suits you in all other respects, you can probably arrange with the owner to fix the leak or pay for the repair. Be sure any arrangement you make is in writing.

Q. — I have some caulking to do on the outside of my house. Some of the gaps are very large and I understand there are materials to fill them in before the final caulking is done. What are they?

A. — The filler materials include oakum, sponge rubber, caulking cotton and glass fiber.

$90,000 House For Royalton

Construction of a single family house, valued at $90,000, topped the list of building permits issued last month in Royalton township by William Nace, township building inspector.

The permit was issued to D.S. Builders, Inc., to build the frame and brick house and garage for Robert Braun in the Naomi lane subdivision.

A total of $264,930 in building permits were issued in Royalton township during May, including: Jerry Livingston, to build a house on Lot 28 in Greenbrook Estates, frame and brick two story, $50,000. Joseph Gaipa, to construct a house on Woodlawn Terrace in Royal View subdivision for Jack Felke, $35,000.

Rudy Elchenhorff, to construct a house on Rocky Weed road, frame construction with aluminum siding, for Ed Schadtler, $28,250. US-31, Charles H. Cosper, Route 1, US-31, Arden, to construct a 24 by 40 foot building to be used as dance studio, $27,000.

Harold Metzger, 4144 South M-130, to construct a storage building for Metzger Insurance agency, $2,000. Glumair Pools, to construct a swimming pool and pole building for Murie Robinson, US-31, Berrien Springs, $12,000.

Vernon Copeland, 221 Scottsdale road, to rebuild an enclosed back porch, $1,200. Melvin Kuhens, Route 1, Berrien Springs, to construct and addition to a house for himself at that address, $10,000. Donald Jones, 1800 Miners road, to build a swimming pool and storage building, $4,500.

Bert Fitz, 1443 Hollywood road, to renew a permit to construct a barn, $1,500. V.C. Sales, St. Joseph, to reroof and reside a house owned by Clarence Heller, Route 1, Berrien Springs, $1,300. William Nace, 524 East Marquette Woods road, to reroof a house for himself at that address, $500.

Jack Kretschman, Route 1, Scottsdale road, Berrien Springs, to construct an addition to his garage, $500. Hicks Sign Co., 3538 Niles road, to replace a sign at the company, $800. Harold Ruppel, Route 1, Rocky Weed road, to reroof a house for himself at that address, $400.

FIRST FLOOR of this expandable home includes a total of six rooms, all off a central foyer. As a family grows, the second floor expansion provides for three additional bedrooms, two baths and more closets. Plan HA939P, designed by architect Samuel Paul, has 1,531 square feet of floor space on the first floor and 755 on the second. For further information write him, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope, at 107-40 Queens boulevard, Forest Hills, N.Y., 13375.

Frequently flower buds will be injured and partially deformed from tarnished plant bug feeding. Snap beans, chard, cucumber, and potato are some favorite vegetables in its diet.

This is the last time that sprays for bronze birch borer, euonymus scale, juniper scale and oystershell scale can be applied with any hope of control. Lindane should be used on the birch and diazinon, malathion or Sevin on the scale insects.

BROKEN TREE
Quite often the leader of a spruce tree will be broken out while the growth is tender. This results in a bit of confusion in the tree until one of the lower shoots "assumes leadership" and starts growing upright as the new leader. To help organize the tree, I suggest you may want to put a splint on the trunk to train the best shoot upward. Be careful not to bend it too hard or it will break also. The new buds have formed on this year's growth.

HEAVY, EARLY
NEW YORK — The combination of heavy-textured asphalt shingles and natural "earth-tone" roof colors is an effective way to avoid the "institutional look" of many multi-family complexes.

Watervliet Hospital Tract Is Rezoned

WATERVLLET — Rezoning to permit construction of the new Community hospital here was approved by Watervliet city commission Thursday.

During a public hearing on the rezoning petition presented by the hospital board, city commissioners voted to rezone the 24.6 acres off Red Arrow highway from rural residential to C-1, a multi-dwelling district that specifically allows non-profit hospitals.

The C-1 zoning class does not include a provision, however, for a medical-dental building which the hospital board presented in its rezoning petition for a D-1 zoning class. The D-1 classification would allow construction of both buildings.

The proposed medical clinic would be built in two to three years and include eight to 10 rental offices for doctors and dentists, according to the petition.

This building would fall under a D-1 classification which allows commercial development near the hospital site located next to Watervliet high school.

After a short adjournment for discussion, Mayor Arvid Frazier said commissioners and the zoning board would like to see the new hospital get underway before making any other broad changes in the zoning of the area.

Commissioners told hospital officials that C-1 zoning class would let construction begin on the hospital and when the time comes for construction of the medical building the hospital board could request a special use permit or variance. The hospital board could also request rezoning of that portion of the land used for the medical building.

The $3.2 million, 70-bed hospital will be financed in part by a Farmers Home Administration loan.

Richard Lindenberg, hospital board chairman, told commissioners the board will keep them informed of construction progress at the hospital and that the board would come before the commission to seek any additional zoning changes.

In other business after the public hearing, F.A. "Mike" Jones, city attorney, reported on two lawsuits filed against the city. He said one suit involves a couple whose property, allegedly, was damaged by water from city drains in April, 1975. The suit claims the drains were not adequately installed. The suit seeks $34,000 in damages.

Jones said the other suit, filed by STAT, the emergency ambulance firm that formerly served the city and township, demands compensation of some $113,000. Jones said the city will contend the ambulance firm did not perform as per an agreement with the city and that no contract was ever signed with the firm.

Frazier reported the city has been offered $36,000 for city owned land northwest of town known as the Lewis addition. It is the site that was under controversy in February when a real estate developer wanted to build low rent apartments. Frazier said the prospective buyer, not mentioned, will grade the roads and put in water and sewer lines to 55 of the possible 127 lots.

Commissioners asked Frazier to check on total costs the city had incurred since owning the property before a decision on the sale is made.

The commission's July meeting will be held July 13 instead of July 6.

NILES BLAST

Gas Leak Linked To Joint Crack

NILES — A natural gas leak which authorities say caused an explosion inside a house here Wednesday critically injuring three people originated from a cracked cast iron T-joint in the line.

Michael Kidd, gas engineer with the Michigan Public Service commission, said Friday the leak originated from a "cracked cast iron T" under the pavement at 1214 Oak street.

He said the T-joint has been replaced and the neighborhood (the 1200 block of Oak street) is safe.

Mrs. Barbara Dutoi, 28, of 1218 Oak street, Niles; Robert Beaver, 31, route 1, Mead road, Buchanan; and Mrs. Beaver's 10-month-old son, Jeffrey, all remain hospitalized in critical condition this morning at Bronson hospital's burn center, Kalamazoo. They were injured when the explosion and subsequent fire ripped through the house at 1214 Oak street around 11:53 a.m. Wednesday.

Kidd said Michigan Power company is going to replace the one block section of main line in the area and the lines will be moved out from under the street. Apparently the lines used to be under a sidewalk, but when the street was widened in 1972 the lines became located under the street.

The explosion and fire are being investigated by the M-PS, the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) and the state fire marshal's office.

Kidd said it has not yet been determined what set off the explosion as officials are waiting to talk with the two injured women.

The neighborhood was the scene of a similar explosion and fire about one and one-half years ago. On Jan. 7, 1975, a natural gas leak was also blamed for an explosion that damaged the 1218 Oak street residence, just one door away from yesterday's blast. No one was injured in that explosion.

Kidd said the 1975 leak originated from a unique type of fitting, not found along other parts of the line. Kidd said the investigation of Wednesday's explosion continues.

Michigan Insurance Aide Quits

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Kenneth Tannenbaum, deputy of the state insurance bureau, has resigned, citing philosophical differences with Insurance Commissioner Thomas Jones.

Tannenbaum, 38, has been with the bureau for two years as chief of the pre-paid health care division. In that job, he has taken the consumer side in opposing rate cases filed by Michigan Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

He also has been responsible for helping institute cost containment programs in the state's nine Health Maintenance Organizations, and in the Delta dental plan to which most United Auto Workers belong.

"I'm not about to stay on when I feel utterly frustrated," said Tannenbaum. "If government can't regulate effectively and protect the public effectively, I don't think they ought to regulate at all."

"I think government misleads the people into thinking most of what's being done is effective and beneficial. I don't think it is."

Thousands Of Birds Die

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP) — As many as 200,000 migrating songbirds plummeted to their deaths in Lake Huron over the Memorial Day weekend after apparently becoming lost in heavy fog. The Blue Water Audubon Society reported the phenomenon this week after the group found hundreds of skeletons floating on Lake Huron three miles north of the Blue Water bridge. "It was a catastrophe, but there is nothing we could have done about it," said Warren Lamb, 35, an electrician and veteran observer of migrating birds.

PLAZA RIVERVIEW DRIVE

BECOMES LORD: Benjamin Britten, 62, Great Britain's foremost composer, became a lord for life Friday when Queen Elizabeth II published her traditional midyear honors list. (AP Wirephoto)

Media Hit By Senator

GAYLORD, Mich. (AP) — The media is "trying to make news rather than report news," says state Sen. Joseph Mack, who has been a target of more than one critical news story.

Mack, a Democrat from Ironwood, defended legislation he has sponsored. He said the news media "down below" (in Detroit) was guilty of telling "lies about the U.P."

The veteran Upper Peninsula lawmaker denied he acts as a lobbyist for the iron and timber industries. He says he is merely representing his constituents.

Mack, speaking at the annual meeting of the Michigan Associated Press Editorial Association, described the iron and timber industries as the "meat and potatoes" of the U.P.'s economy. He likened tourism to "frosting on the cake."

Responding to published criticism that he was a lobbyist for U.P. business, he said the "most powerful lobby is not special interests but the news media, which can bend or sway public opinion any way they wish."

He also was critical of a $28 million aid package for Detroit passed earlier this week, saying the legislation was designed to help "a city that never took care of its own business. So we had to bail them out." Mack voted in favor of the measure.

Woman Officer On Stand

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — A black policeman testified Friday she was "in fear of her life" when she shot a white policeman after they argued over who was to drive their patrol car.

Officer Madeline Fletcher was the leadoff defense witness at her Genesee County Circuit Court trial on charges of wounding Officer Walter Kalberer on Dec. 27.

Her testimony differed sharply from that of six other Flint policemen who testified earlier as prosecution witnesses. Miss Fletcher denied the allegations and said "they were made up and presented in court."

The six officers testified Miss Fletcher swore at Kalberer, hit him with a night stick and shot him. She testified that Kalberer swore at her and tried to pull her from the police car, causing her great fear, as a result of which she shot him in the thigh.

Miss Fletcher, 24, was shot in the stomach during the tussle in the Flint police parking lot.

She testified that on the day of the shooting, she saw Kalberer standing with several other officers as they approached their cruiser. She said when she started to get in the driver's side, Kalberer told her, "Get your ass over... I will do the driving."

She denied swearing at Kalberer, although other officers testified she told him to get his "big fat ass on the other side."

She said that when Kalberer tried to drug her from the police car, she poked him with her nightstick and he responded in kind.

She said she lost her nightstick during the melee and that she then drew her gun and shot Kalberer. She said she then hid in nearby bushes until a sergeant and a policeman arrived and rescued her.

Media Seek Admission To Trial

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. Court of Appeals says it will hear arguments Monday on news media petitions for admission to the trial of singer Connie Francis' $5-million civil suit against Howard Johnson Motor Lodges Inc.

Lawyers for Miss Francis and the motel chain had complained of a "carnival atmosphere" and "prurient interest" in the case from the news media.

LAKE TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Township Board of Lake Township, Berrien County, Michigan, desires to proceed under the terms and provisions of Michigan Public Act 168 of 1959, as amended, and create thereunder a planning commission for said Township.

NOT THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

(1) The Lake Township Board does hereby create a Township Planning Commission consisting of seven qualified electors and property owners of the Township under the authority of and subject to the powers, duties and limitations provided in Michigan Public Act 168 of 1959, as amended, and the terms and conditions of the within resolution and any amendments thereto which might hereafter be adopted.

(2) The Township Planning Commission shall consist of the following qualified electors and property owners of the Township who are hereby appointed by the Supervisor with the unanimous approval of the Township Board for the terms set after each members' name and until a successor or successors have been appointed or such term or terms have been sooner terminated under the provisions of said Public Act 168. All terms shall commence on the effective date of this resolution. At the expiration of a term set out below, each succeeding term shall be for a period of three (3) years.

Stanley Wilk — 2 year term.
Larry Frank — 1 year term.
Norman Zeimer — 2 year term.

Sue Kliehmans — 3 year term.
Robert Kamradt — 2 year term.
Kenneth Humes — 1 year term.

LeRoy Gast — 3 year term.

(3) The members of the Township Planning Commission shall receive as compensation for their services such reasonable amounts as provided by the Township Board.

(4) All powers, duties and responsibilities provided by Michigan Public Act 184 of 1913, as amended, for zoning boards created thereunder, are hereby transferred to said Township Planning Commission, to become effective upon completion by the Township Zoning Board of any and all of its duties and obligations with regard to amendments and supplements to the Township Zoning Ordinance presently in the process of development with the understanding, however, that such postponement of transfer shall, in no event, exceed a period of one (1) year, nor be less than a period of sixty (60) days following the publication of this resolution.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing transfer, the Lake Township Zoning Ordinance presently in effect within the Township shall remain in full force and effect until otherwise amended, altered or changed by the Township Zoning Board, or as otherwise provided by law or ordinance.

(6) a. The Planning Commission shall elect a chairman, vice chairman and secretary from its members and create and fill such other offices or committees as it may deem advisable. The Planning Commission may appoint advisory committees outside of its membership. The terms of all officers shall be one (1) year.

b. The Planning Commission shall hold at least four (4) regular meetings each year, and by resolution shall determine the time and place of such meetings. Special meetings may be called by two (2) members upon written request to the secretary, or by the chairman. The secretary shall send written notice of any special meeting to all members at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the meeting. All meetings shall be open to the public.

c. The Planning Commission shall adopt rules for the transaction of business, and shall keep a public record of its resolutions, transactions, findings, and determinations. It shall make an annual written report to activities, including recommendations regarding planning and development.

7. The Planning Commission shall make and adopt a basic plan as a guide for the development of unincorporated portions of the Township. This is the plan referred to in Act 164 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, being sections 125.271 to 125.301 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, being the authority under which the zoning plan is developed. As a basis for the plan, the Planning Commission is hereby empowered to (1) make inquiries, investigations and surveys of all the resources of the Township and (2) assemble and analyze data and formulate plans for the proper conservation and uses of all resources, including a determination of the extent of probable future need for the most advantageous designation of lands having various use potentials and for service, facilities and utilities required to equip such lands. The Planning Commission shall consult, in respect to its planning with representatives of adjacent townships; with the county planning commission, if any; with any representatives of incorporated municipalities within the Township; and with the regional planning commission.

8. Whenever the Planning Commission has adopted the basic plan of the Township of one (1) or more major sections or districts thereof, no street, square, park or other public way, ground or open space, or public building or structure, shall be constructed or authorized in the Township or in the planned section and district until the location, character and extent thereof shall have been submitted to and approved by the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission shall communicate its reasons for approval or disapproval to the Township Board, which shall have the power to overrule the Planning Commission by a recorded vote of not less than a majority of its entire membership. If the public way, ground, space, building, structure or utility is one, the authorization of financing of which does not, under the law governing same, fall within the province of the township Board, then the submission to the Planning Commission shall be by the board, commission or body having jurisdiction, and the Planning Commission's disapproval may be overruled by resolution of the board, commission or body by a vote of not less than a majority of its membership.

9. The Township Planning Commission may make recommendations to the Township Board, to public officials (including the zoning Board of Appeals) and to citizens regarding all matters relating to the planning and development of the Township.

10. The Township Board shall refer plans or other matters relating to land development to the Planning Commission before final action thereon by the Township Board and may request the Planning Commission to recommend regulations governing the subdivision of land. The recommendations may provide for the subdivision design, the standards of design and the physical improvements that may be required.

11. All plans, regulations and zoning activities of the Township Planning Commission shall be subject to the approval of the Township Board of Lake Township, which approval shall be required before the same becomes effective.

12. This resolution may be amended or repealed at any time by majority vote of the entire membership of the Lake Township Board.

13. Any amendments which may hereafter be made to Michigan Public Act 168 of 1959, as presently amended, by Michigan Public Act 76 of 1962, shall hereby be deemed to automatically control the activities of the Township Planning Commission created hereunder unless the same are specifically determined not to so apply, by resolution of the Lake Township Board.

14. This resolution shall take effect sixty (60) days following publication of a notice of the same in a newspaper having general circulation within the Township.

15. The Township Clerk shall within ten (10) days of the passage of this resolution, transmit copies of the same to the Secretary of State for the State of Michigan and to the Berrien County Planning Commission as notice of the action hereby taken.

CERTIFICATE

I, Elsie Peck, as Township Clerk of Lake Township, Berrien County, Michigan, hereby certify that the within resolution was duly adopted by the Lake Township Board at a regular meeting of said Board at which a quorum was present, held on June 7, 1976.

LEGAL NOTICES

DRAINAGE DISTRICT

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS
The Berrien County Drain Commission will receive sealed proposals for the work shown below until 11:00 A.M. on the 17th of July, 1976, at the office of the Berrien County Drain Commission, Room 101, Berrien County Courthouse, St. Joseph, Michigan 49085, at which time all bids will be publicly opened and read aloud in Room 101 at the Berrien County Courthouse.

The work on which proposals are to be submitted includes:

1. Installation of Storm Drain: Approximately 1,670 lineal feet of storm sewer ranging in size from 12 inch to 18 inch, including drainage structure complete and ready to use.

2. Purchase of Materials: For the furnishing of F.O.B. job site, unloaded, of all type and kinds of material called for in Purchase Proposal.

The Contractor Documents, including plans and specifications, are on file at the office of Carl F. Gnadtke, Berrien County Drain Commissioner, Room 101, Berrien County Courthouse, St. Joseph, Michigan.

Copies of documents including plans and specifications, required for review or bidding purposes, may be obtained only from: Drain Commission by depositing $20.00 with the Drain Commission for each set of documents so obtained.

The full amount of the deposit for one set of documents and one-half of the deposit for any additional sets of documents will be refunded to any bidder who submits a bona fide bid and returns the documents in good condition. Contractors who do not submit bids, subcontractors, equipment manufacturers, and others who return the documents within ten days after the opening of bids will be refunded one-half of their deposit.

A certified check or bank draft payable to the Berrien County Drain Commission, or a satisfactory bid bond executed by the bidder and a surety company in an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the bid shall be submitted with each proposal.

No bid shall be withdrawn after the opening of proposals without the consent of the Berrien County Drain Commission for a period of ninety (90) days after the schedule time of closing bids.

The Berrien County Drain Commission reserves the right to waive any irregularities, reject any or all bids, or accept any bid when, in their opinion, such act will serve their best interests.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory performance bond and labor and material bond in the amount of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract price.

PAYMENT:
THE MATERIAL CONTRACTOR will receive 100% of his bid price with check by the County Treasurer within 30 days after he has furnished all the materials necessary, unloaded, F.O.B. job site and has replaced any damaged or defective material.

THE INSTALLING CONTRACTOR will be paid 90% of contract price with check by the County Treasurer for work completed as estimated by the engineer at the end of each 30 day period, provided at least $1000 has been earned during the estimate period. The remaining 10% will be retained by the owner for 60 days or until he receives written consent of the Surety and furnishes an affidavit that all his indebtedness on this project has been paid in full.

BRUNKE DRAIN
Notice of Letting of Drain Contract and Review of Apportionments

Notice is hereby given, That I, Carl F. Gnadtke, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Berrien, State of Michigan, will, on the 7th day of July, A.D. 1976, at the Drain Commissioner's Office Room 101, Courthouse, St. Joseph, Michigan 49085 in the City of St. Joseph, in said County of Berrien at 11:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day receive sealed bids until 11:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, when bids will be opened and publicly announced for the construction of a certain Drain known and designated as "Brunke Drain," located and established in the Township of Royallton, in said County.

Said drain is divided into one Section, depth and width as set forth: a distance of about 2,800 feet.

1. Dig approximately 8'0" open ditch 8' to 12' below existing (the with 1' to 1 1/2" slope beginning at outlet in a straight line, approximately 200' to the line; then follow the line to existing open ditch.

2. Clean approximately 2100' open ditch, do not disturb banks. Approximately 1' in 3' to be removed.

3. Replace 2 existing driveway tubes. Install 1 tube in new open ditch at owner's choice of location (tubes will be furnished by Drain Commission.) Place riprap (concrete or stone) at ends of tubes.

4. Level all spoils. Dispose of stumps and brush. Contractors responsibility comply with State & Federal regulations & safety requirements. All fences replaced. All work to be done to Drain Commissioner's satisfaction and approval.

The Commissioner shall first let the section at the outlet of the Drain; and shall let each remaining section in its order upstream; Provided, that the Commissioner may let the Drain in sections or as a whole which ever appears to him most practical.

Said job will be let by one section. The section at the outlet of said Drain will be let first, and the remaining sections in their order upstream, in accordance with the diagram now on file with the other papers pertaining to said Drain, in the office of the County Drain Commissioner of the County of Berrien to which reference may be had by all parties interested, and bids will be made and received accordingly.

Contracts will be made with the lowest responsible bidder giving adequate security for the performance of the work, in the sun then and there to be fixed by me, reserving to myself the right to reject any and all bids, and to adjourn such letting to such time and place as I shall publicly announce.

The date for the completion of such contract, and the terms of payment therefor, shall and will be announced at the time and place of letting. Any person desiring to bid on the above mentioned work will be required to deposit with the Drainage Board, a certified check or cash in the amount of ($200.00) Two Hundred Dollars as a guarantee that he will enter into contract and furnish the required bond as prescribed by law. The checks of all unsuccessful bidders will be returned after contracts are awarded. The Payments for the above mentioned work will be made as follows:

Drain Order due April 15, 1977 Notice is Further, hereby Given, that on Thursday the 5th day of August, 1976, at Drain Commissioner's Office Room 101 Courthouse in the City of St. Joseph, County of Berrien, or at such other time and place thereafter, to which I, the County Drain Commissioner aforesaid, may adjourn the same, the apportionment for benefits - and the lands comprised within the "Brunke Drain Special Assessment District," and the apportionments thereof will be subject to review for one day, from nine o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon. At said review the computation of costs for said Drain will also be open for inspection by any parties interested.

The following is a description of the several tracts or parcels of land constituting the Special Assessment District of said Drain, viz:

Ask Them Yourself

Want to ask a famous person a question? Send the question on a postcard, to "Ask," Family Weekly, 841 Lexington Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022. We'll pay $5 for published questions. Sorry, we can't answer others.

FOR LOUISE LASSER,

star of "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman"

Are you anything like Mary Hartman?—N.S., Washington, D.C.

● Even though I've never spent a lot of time in a kitchen, the way Mary Hartman does, I certainly have experienced her boredom and despair. I think we're both survivalists in a world that may not be worth surviving in. We're both fighters, but I think I have more hostility in me—maybe from all those years in New York City. Mary Hartman is a sad, goofy lady who probably doesn't even know she wears her dresses a size too small.

FOR SUSAN ST. JAMES, star of "MacMillan and Wif"

At the beginning of the 1974 TV season, your character, Mrs. MacMillan, gave birth to a child. The baby was mentioned only once after that. What happened?—Janice Richard, Fort Arthur, Tex.

● The producers of the series decided against using the baby as a regular series character. At that time, I was pregnant with my own baby and the producers had no choice but to write the pregnancy into the scripts. Off screen, I had a boy, Harmony Lucas, born Nov. 10, 1974.

FOR ELTON JOHN

Why do you wear such outrageous clothes?—C.T., Hutchinson, Kans.

● Since I can't wear those tight-fitting leather pants like most of the rock singers do (I'm too short and wide), I go to the other extreme. Don't take my get-ups, glasses and hair too seriously. It's all a put-on. What I'm trying to say is, "Rock 'n' roll is fun. Let's have a good laugh and enjoy ourselves."

FOR BURT REYNOLDS

If you could change one feature on your beautiful face, what would it be?—Susan Ward, Savannah, Ga.

● Nothing! Otherwise, I would have.

FOR O. J. SIMPSON

Is it true that at age 15 you introduced yourself to Jimmy Brown, the Cleveland Browns' fullback, and told him you were going to be a pro star?—Jeff Thomas, Johnson City, Tenn.

● Yes, it was in a soda shop in San Francisco. And I told him that I was going to break his record for yardage gained in one season. After I broke it in 1974, I did not hear from him.

FOR ROBERT WELCH, founder of the John Birch Society
Your society seems to have quieted down. Right or wrong?—A. Kravitz, New York, N.Y.

● We're more active and influential now than at any time in our 17-year existence. If it seems we've "quieted down," it's because we don't get as much attention from the media. Our aims—"less government, more responsibility and, with God's help, a better world"—are unchanged. In order to bring about the better world we seek, we're working to expose and destroy the Communist conspiracy.

FOR BARBARA WALTERS

What's your most valuable beauty aid?—N.D., Manchester, N.H.

● Electric curlers, especially those with the big rollers. They're a great gadget—fast and efficient. They're especially marvelous for me because I get up so early and haven't got that much time.

FOR JANIS IAN

Do you think your kind of singing and music will endure?—T.M., Hartford, Conn.

● Definitely not. It gets boring after awhile; so if I get bored, I imagine audiences feel the same way. Nor do I have that much of a style, so I can't modify or change it to fit new trends.

FOR SEN. BIRCH BAYH (D-Ind.)

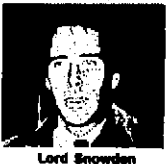

You said Ted Kennedy told you he definitely would not run for President. Do you feel he might come in at the last moment? Would he agree to be a Vice-Presidential candidate?—Robert Langley, Waco, Tex.

● I take Senator Kennedy at his word. I don't believe he'll become a candidate this year under any circumstances. I seriously doubt he has any desire to serve as Vice President.

FOR THE "ASK THEM YOURSELF" EDITOR

How do the British feel about Princess Margaret's broken marriage?—S.F., Ogden, Utah

● At first the British press was behind Margaret. Then they started to criticize her. They asked if her zest for excitement fit in with royal traditions. They called her the least active member of the Royal Family and said she shirked her duties. Her state allowance of $70,000 annually was questioned. Sympathy turned to Lord Snowden when he tearfully stated in Australia he was "desperately sad" at the separation and asked for his two children's understanding. Veteran British actress Hermione Gingold said she sided with Lord Snowden: "I hope they don't get together again. Seems to me they've already been apart for years."

More Views on the Issues of Campaign '78 From Interviews by the Editors of FAMILY WEEKLY

Reagan, Church, Brown: A Fascinating Compendium

"I believe the Equal Rights Amendment would cause a variety of new problems that might benefit lawyers but few others. That's why I am opposed to the ERA."—Ronald Reagan

Ronald Reagan Republican

On Selling Wheat to Russia: I wouldn't place curbs on the sale of wheat to Russia as long as they can buy wheat elsewhere on the world market. I would insist, however, that the Russians pay cash for any wheat they buy from us because the money they spend on wheat they can't spend on arms.

On the U.N.: I'm not in favor of our pulling out at this time. The U.N. is badly in need of reform, but any new organization that we would support to replace it would eventually face the same problems. However, I agree with former U.N. Ambassador Daniel Moynihan that we shouldn't take any abuse from other U.N. members. We should also reassess our financial support to make sure that other nations are paying their fair share, and we should review the channeling of our foreign aid through the U.N.

On the CIA: If the CIA has created problems it is only because the Congress and the last few administrations have not lived up to their responsibilities. It is not enough for them to wait for a major scandal to break and then to overreact. Intelligence agencies must not go beyond their charters. At the same time, we all must realize that our nation will not long survive if we destroy our intelligence capabilities.

On Education: One of the strengths of our educational system was its diversity. But as the Federal Government has seized more and more control in this area, we have lost that diversity, and the level of learning has declined. I have proposed turning back to the states the tax sources the Federal Government has usurped to fund education. In this way, the people of each state and community would regain the right to say what sort of education their children should receive.

On Women's Rights: I believe in equal rights for all persons, but I believe these rights can be protected through both state and federal laws passed under the Constitution as it now stands. I believe the Equal Rights Amendment would cause a variety of new problems that might benefit lawyers but few others. That's why I am opposed to passage of the Equal Rights Amendment.

On Secretary Kissinger: I don't think that Secretary Kissinger has abused his power.

in to save them. Why should there be socialism for the rich and free enterprise for the poor?"—Sen. Frank Church

Sen. Frank Church Democrat

On Medical Care: I believe that a national health-insurance plan will eventually cover all citizens. But the hard truth is that we have not yet adequately covered the elderly, whose Medicare benefits have fallen from 50 percent to 38 percent. Until we learn how to properly care for the elderly, we don't have a workable model for the country as a whole. We must reform Medicare and Medicaid. One kind of insurance that we should adopt immediately is public insurance for all citizens against medical catastrophes.

On the Economy: Until we are much closer to full employment, there must be temporary Federally funded public works and job programs, geared as much as possible to local needs and local decision-making. We must halt the Federal subsidizing of exporting jobs that are needed here at home. Discouraging inflation requires greater competition in the marketplace. This can be accomplished by more vigorous enforcement of antitrust laws, by revising regulatory codes that either stifle business or give others an unfair competitive advantage and by restoring the viability of small businesses.

On Secretary Kissinger: Secretary Kissinger's faults have come to outweigh his virtues. His primary shortcoming is his apparent inability to realize that a successful foreign policy rests upon the consent of the Congress and the people. As President, I would select a new Secretary of State.

On Military Spending: We should vigorously pursue arms talks to reduce the nuclear arsenals that have been built up around the world. We must also encourage the development of a leaner, stronger military by establishing a ceiling on military spending and enforcing the services to work within that limit. The bloated manpower of the Pentagon must be reduced as well. There are 924,000 civilians working at the Department of Defense—that's almost one civilian for every two in uniform. And their payroll has increased 119 percent since 1964.

On the CIA: If the CIA cannot be made responsive to our elected Government officials, it should be dismantled. Nothing could be more dangerous to constitutional government than a powerful intelligence agency of multinational corporations. The question before all of us is the survival of the human species."—Gov. Jerry Brown

Gov. Jerry Brown Democrat

On Military Spending: I take the same skeptical view of the military budget as I do of all the Federal departments' budgets. I think there's a tendency on the part of every bureaucracy to expand, and I'd like to challenge certain assumptions on which the military budget grows and grows and grows.

On Tax Reform: Certainly I think those who make the most ought to pay taxes accordingly, and I'm in favor of limiting loopholes where possible, but talk of tax reforms tends to be nothing more than rhetoric.

Dramatic changes in the income-tax system are unlikely.

On Jerry Brown: The virtue of my candidacy is that I represent a new generation, that I'm not encumbered by the baggage of the past and I'm prepared to review and clean house in all the Federal departments and agencies. I think I could bring to the office of President a spirit of honesty and, hopefully, recreate the momentum America had in former years.

On Women's Lib: The Equal Rights Amendment symbolizes a development that has occurred in recent years and will continue to develop—the role of women in our society is changing. Their prominence in the work force is quite evident, and the ERA will enshrine in Constitutional language a principle whose time has come. I support the ERA.

On Secretary Kissinger: His actions in some areas of our foreign policy have been commendable, but he's reaching the point where his effectiveness is limited. It's time for a new Administration and a new generation of leadership. America needs a more profound policy statement of where we and the rest of the world are headed. We have to get away from our simplistic chess-board approach. And I haven't seen in Kissinger a broad enough view of the planetary realism that I think is required of us at this point.

On Busing: In order to bring about the integration that we all need, and without which the country is going to be very unhappy in the future, we must concentrate on adjustments of attendance boundaries so that pupils from different backgrounds, who live in the same geographical area, can have the same educational experience; "magnet schools"; voluntary busing; and the opening up of

"We're looking for people to write children's books."

If you ever wanted to write and be published this is your opportunity.

by Francis Gemme

We need writers. There are over 150 publishers of books for children and more than 250 magazines, all of which have a need for writers.

We know that many people could help fill this need for children's writers if they could only get started. Are you one of those people? Do you have the urge to write and the ambition to work at it but are unable to get professional training? Are you tied to your home or job? Perhaps you lack confidence in your ability?

Have you ever read a children's story and said, "I can do better than that"? Have you ever deplored the lack of good new literature for young readers? Do you love children? Do you want to do something important with your life? Do you want the personal satisfaction and the rewards that come with writing for children? That very attitude may be the clue that you can do it, for the desire to write must come first.

Stories only you can write.

Once you learn to use the basic writing techniques, writing for children may be easier than you think. Your personal experiences, fantasies, personality traits, and hobbies all lend themselves to good subjects. Many of these subjects have been written about—plainly and simply—and have been published. You probably have within yourself many children's stories that only you can write.

A new kind of school.

At the Institute of Children's Literature top writers and publishers have worked together to create a professional course to teach you to write for young children and for teenagers. They include people like Lee Wyndham, a teacher and author of forty-eight books, including Writing for Children and Teenagers, Hardie Gramatky, author and illustrator of many famous children's books like Little Toot, and John Lodes, President of Astor Honor Books and publisher of many award-winning children's books. In total, these professional writers have published hundreds and hundreds of books and magazine articles for young readers. They know how to write—how to teach—and how to help you get your writing published.

Learning to write and to sell.

This course will train you step-by-step from the writing of the opening sentence through the polishing of a finished manuscript. Yes, you will have completed a manuscript suitable for submission to a publisher when you finish this course.

The success of this course has been demonstrated time and again by people who simply knew in their hearts that they could write in a way that would enrich children's reading experiences.

Your own instructor.

Because writing is a very personal experience, we believe that the teaching of writing must also be personalized. That is why, in addition to writing materials, textbooks, instruction, and assignments, you will receive personal guidance on every lesson from your own instructor.

The instructor chosen for you will be a professional writer who will remain with you throughout the course. He will show you how to use your personal feelings, experiences, imagination, and interests to write for children—in your spare time at home.

Work at your own pace.

A writing course is most effective when you can work at the time you feel most like working. With this course, there is no bell to end the class and no interruptions from other students. You and your instructor can work together at the pace most suitable for you. This flexible schedule allows more time for each student than is possible in a classroom situation.

You mail your completed work to your instructor who carefully reads and edits each assignment. He then writes you a long personal letter explaining in detail his corrections and makes specific recommendations. You receive professional advice and guidance while you work where you want—when you want.

The rewards.

Although many writers of children's books earn $10,000 to $15,000 and more a year, the benefits of a career in writing also include the challenge, the excitement, and the great satisfaction of doing something important with your life. When you complete this course, you will be a trained writer with a future. And what a future!

The market is enormous. Editors and publishers of children's literature are searching for talented writers.

Last year, more than 30 million children's books were published, producing total sales of over 170 million dollars! And over 250 periodicals for children with a combined circulation of over 60,000,000 were published. Books and magazine articles for children are frequently adapted for television and for the movies. In addition, there are twenty-six children's book clubs and a rapidly expanding children's paperback market.

Writing is truly satisfying only when your work is published and, for writers of children's literature, there have never been more publishers.

Will you take the first step?

You may be a teacher, be taking care of a home, or be a concerned grandparent. You may not even believe that you have the necessary background to become a successful writer. But, as an author, you will be judged solely on your ability to write—not on your age, sex, education, or previous writing experience.

For example, female authors appear on the best sellers list as frequently as do male authors and, in the field of children's literature, there are as many female editors as there are male editors.

Free test.

To find qualified men and women with an aptitude for writing, the Faculty and Consultants of the Institute have prepared a special Aptitude Test. It is offered free of charge and will be evaluated at no charge to you by members of our staff.

If you want to be a writer, send in the coupon below for this free test and for a free brochure which fully describes the Institute, our course, our faculty, the current publishing market for children's literature, and your new future. If you demonstrate an aptitude for writing, you will be eligible to enroll. Of course, there is no obligation.

Reagan

but it appears that he has lost faith in the ability of our democracy to compete with the totalitarian system of the Soviet Union. He apparently is willing to settle for second best. I am not. Second best means last if we want to preserve freedom. I believe America must take whatever steps are necessary to remain strong, free and independent. As President, I would choose a Secretary of State who felt the same way.

On the Vice Presidency: I have long believed that the Vice President is a member of the executive branch and should not serve as President of the Senate. The Vice President should be an assistant to the President serving much as an executive vice president does in the corporate world.

On Our Tax System: There is no simple answer to solving the problems of our present system, but an answer must be sought to make our entire tax system fairer. One approach would be to limit the percentage of a person's income that the Government could take. This would give Government a much-needed incentive to be more efficient and to set priorities in its spending. I think the system should also be simplified so legal help isn't required to find out how much a taxpayer owes.

On Military Spending: I believe the U.S. should spend whatever amount is necessary to insure that we have military superiority. Only if we are free from the threat of outside aggression can we build a better, freer society at home.

On Freedom of the Press: Freedom of the press is vital to the maintenance of a free society. There is an old saying that applies especially to those in public life—if you can't stand the heat get out of the kitchen. It's possible to guarantee freedom of the press; it's not possible to guarantee that a free press will always be unbiased, totally responsible and completely accurate. Most Americans understand this. Certainly most people in public life do. We must never take away the press' right to expose or criticize, even if it sometimes goes astray.

On Medical Care: There is no such thing as "free health care," as some have advocated. We can do better privately or at the state level in our present pluralistic system. I think we can alter the private medical insurance system, perhaps with some individual Government financing, so that all Americans can receive adequate medical care. I think it would also be possible to make "catastrophic illness" insurance available at a price any family could afford.

out of control. I think the CIA can be fully controlled if the President does his job and if the Congress exercises continuing oversight through the establishment of a permanent intelligence committee.

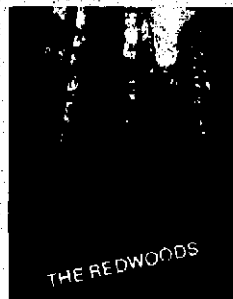

On a Federal Welfare Program: Washington cannot save the cities of America simply by substituting Federal money for municipal money. Whether it goes through Federal channels or local channels, all the money eventually comes from the people. The notion that municipal problems would be solved by a raid on the Federal treasury—which some seem to believe is an unlimited fount—is not the solution. What our next President must do is revitalize the private sector to bring employment, especially blue-collar jobs, back into those cities where jobless rates have soared.

On the Presidency: We must do away with the pomp and pageantry of the Presidency. The White House should become once more a people's house. The functions need not be exclusive and ostentatious affairs of state. Making the White House less of a ceremonial center would be especially good for the President because it would keep him in much broader contact with those he serves. And in Bicentennial 1976, it would be reassuring to know that our newly elected President has cut through the imperial trappings at the White House to rediscover America.

On Federal Aid to Defense Contractors: Once we start down this road, we abandon the foundations of free enterprise—

There are two sides to this broiling story.
Broil both sides at once with GE's Broil-R-Grill.

The GE Broil-R-Grill broils closed, broils both sides at once. Two-sided broiling is faster. It's virtually smokeless and spatter-free. And it sears in meat juices and seals in flavor, too.

The Broil-R-Grill broils just about anything:

steaks, hamburgers, shish kebab, chicken, fish, tomatoes, bacon. And it opens flat for one-sided broiling, too, so you can broil twice as much. Grease drains into a tray, and the tray and non-stick grids go right in the dishwasher.

Surprising Beauty Advice By Salon Experts

The inside story on hair, skin and nail care

HAIR: The Secret Is in Your Fingers

Stylists frequently have decreed "hands off" to running your fingers through your hair, which, they say, makes it limp and ruins the shape. But Richard Stein, one of New York's top hairstylists, believes that women should use a helping hand along with a lightweight dryer to find and train natural waves and to bend bone-straight hair into curves. The hands are good styling tools because they "feel," never tear or break the hair. When teamed with varying amounts of air from a powerful dryer (the one used here: Remington's Super Brush) hand-styling can lift hair and give it body, height and width without making it look stiff or set.

How to: First dry hair until slightly damp, then catch hair between the first two fingers of one hand, palm down. Twist the ends around the forefinger, turning the palm over so that your fingers act like a tiny roller. To give height to long hair, as the hair begins to dry, bring it all forward and aim the dryer at the base of the hair, starting at the nape of the neck. Then brush hair back into place.

SKIN: Myths Versus Facts

Christine Valmy, a pioneer in skin care, says, "Most women rely on a set of myths without understanding how the skin really works." To wit:

Myth No. 1: Wash oily skin as often as possible to reduce oil. Actually, frequent washing stimulates oil production, which is a natural skin defense against weather and heat. Instead, wash only twice a day and blot with slightly cool water in between.

Myth No. 2: Dry skin needs heavy doses of moisturizer. Too much oil drowns dry skin and forms a greasy raincoat. Dry skin glands are lazy and need to be teased into action. A little cream, no more than the size of a bean, nourishes without suffocating.

Myth No. 3: Always wash face with hot water, followed by a cold rinse. Fast temperature changes abuse the delicate skin tissues and can even break capillaries. The best skin awakener is a gentle massage with a soft complexion brush or a washcloth to slough off the top layer of dead, dulling skin.

Myth No. 4: A tan makes you look as great as you feel. Tanning is an aging and toughening process. Every month of deep tanning adds about a year to the age of the face. If you're 30, you'll look 32 next year, instead of 31. The reason is that the heat makes the skin lose moisture and causes deepening lines and furrows.

NAILS: How to Keep Them Growing

Women love long nails, says nail expert Ann Keane, but they aren't willing to protect them with rubber gloves every time they use detergents. Chemical nail building, which has become popular in the last few years, can weaken the nail bed and cause fungus growth. As an alternative, Ms. Keane suggests nail "wrapping," a simple, centuries-old art to protect and strengthen natural nails. Nail wrapping in the salon or at home protects against cracks and strengthens nails to let them grow to new lengths.

First, the nail is coated with a layer of protective glue. A tiny bit of strong porous paper is pressed on the free edge of the nail with an orange stick. The surface is then smoothed to remove air bubbles. The paper is cut about an eighth of an inch beyond the nail and flipped underneath to form a tiny diaper. After seven minutes, the nail is ready for a full manicure. To wrap at home, Max Factor and Revlon nail-wrapping kits are available in most drugstores and department stores. AT LAST!

Natural Face Lifting By Exercise!

Now, from Hollywood, California, comes what may be the most important beauty news of the decade. A proven, minutes-a-day method of facial muscle shortening—done in your own home with your own ten fingers—that has been called, "perhaps the only method in the world by which one can lift a face naturally!"

For What Is Loose, Aging, Flabby Skin Really?

Merely STRETCHED-OUT MUSCLES, That The Years Have Caused To Lose Their Ability To Hold Themselves Tight And Firm!

As Madame Runge says, it is not the skin, but the firmness or looseness of the muscle flesh beneath that skin that really portrays a man's or woman's age.

In fact, as she points out, the collapse of the upper cheek muscles alone may cause more than 30 per cent of the aging appearance in the face. As she so vividly states:

"Between the ages of 21 and 40, for instance, the upper cheek muscles may have sagged as much as half an inch; and by the age of 60 by as much as one inch, which means that we have an inch too much hanging over the lower part of the face. This results in hollows in the upper cheeks below the cheek bones, fullness and flabbiness in the lower cheeks, pouches from the mouth to the chin, folds above the laugh line, drooping mouth corners and jowls."

"In addition, the muscles of the upper eyelids may sag as much as half an inch or more between the ages of 20 and 60, causing eyebrows to shift down and upper eyelids to overlap lashes, making the eyes appear smaller. And those muscles attached to our throat skin may sag as much as two inches, resulting in what is termed a "turkey neck."

Thus, She Says, Since The Cause Of This

Facial Aging Is Muscle Sagging, "It Stands To Reason That To Remedy It, WE HAVE TO SHORTEN THE MUSCLE GROUP RESPONSIBLE!"

"Flabby and droopy flesh is caused by muscles which have been ignored... My method of isometric facial exercises remedies this."

WANT ABSOLUTE PROOF?

Then Read These Delighted Users Own Words:

"One morning I went through all your exercises while my husband was watching. He expressed great amazement when my jowls practically disappeared right before his eyes." M. N. J., Sherman Oaks, Calif.

"My lips are taking on fullness and shape once more. God bless you." M. S. S., Beverly Hills, Calif.

"I have had wonderful results with my upper face. I removed all of my forehead lines, and believe me they were deep." Mrs. R. B., Glendale, Calif.

"I am 28 years old and was able to remove my vertical frown lines with one exercise." B. C. Pasadena, Calif.

"I am 44 years old, and people are telling me I don't look older than 32. Have been erasing wrinkles like mad." E. H., Covina, Calif.

"I receive the most extravagant compliments about my appearance. I am 41½, and recently some lady whom I had met several times said she thought I was about 23. Isn't that something?" B. X., Woodland Hills, Calif.

"I am amazed at the way the crow's feet wrinkles around my eyes are disappearing already. It doesn't seem possible at my age (66 years), but I am so encouraged and will keep right on with it." G. M. P., Los Angeles, Calif.

"The improvement in my face is almost unbelievable. I had given up hope until I found you." Mrs. C. R. B., Covina, Calif.

"Your facial exercises have done more for me in the past few months than my two facial exercise machines have in years. At 24 I look much younger than I did 8 years ago." S. R. J., St. Paul, Minn.

"People say to me, 'What happened to you? Truly I already look 10 years younger.'—O. B., Big Bear, Calif.

"My friends look at me and compliment me... I am 36 years old and like to take pride in my youthful appearance." Mrs. T. K., Pacific Palisades, Calif.

"I met a woman a month ago, who had the most beautiful face. She looked about 23 or 26. She told us she was 46 years old. She also told us about your method." S. H., North Hollywood, Calif.

cause of the aging process of the face by tightening these sagging muscles... thereby producing a firming where the face appears flabby, and a filling out by rebuilding atrophying muscle tissues. All in a natural and healthy way, thus providing a natural youthful face which may be retained throughout life."

"And the skin itself will always adapt to the size of its underlying foundation... The skin is merely a thin covering over the"

Read This One Paragraph—

"You cannot help but see yourself looking younger, since each correctly applied exercise in this book has the power to turn your clock back regardless of age. And, if you can afford to eliminate 20 years from your appearance, this book can teach you how to do this in 3 to 4 months."

Back that has to return to the size of the muscle flesh when it is shortened through isometric exercise."

And Says Madame Runge: This NATURAL Way To Lift The Face Is Much More ENDURING Than Even The Finest Face Lift Through Plastic Surgery!

"Surgery can never restore the tone to either skin or muscles... It should be understood that no plastic surgeon, and in fact nothing but exercises, can tighten up flaccid muscles."

"For example, even the result from peeling off the wrinkled surface skin lasts only temporarily, since the poor muscle condition beneath the skin very soon causes the same wrinkles to form."

"A woman whose career depended on public performances consulted me at the recommendation of her plastic surgeon, after he had performed surgical skin tightening on her neck eight times."

"The new tight skin (from plastic surgery) does hold the contour of the face somewhat up, consequently giving it a rejuvenated look. Unfortunately, however, the collapsed muscle structure beneath it soon pushes the new skin downward again, which makes it necessary to repeat the lift."

But Now These Temporary, Artificial Methods, Can Be Replaced By Simple, Natural Exercises, Says Madame Runge, WITH RESULTS LIKE THESE:

"Some people I knew were practicing grimaces, and foolishly believed they were exercising their facial muscles. But reason and logic tell us that grimacing merely misforms muscles into lines, furrows and ugly features."

"The actual application of every one of these exercises takes only about one minute. The process causes to tighten and to shorten specific muscles, by expending them to their fullest natural limit. In this natural way, neither muscles nor skin can be overexerted. In fact, the skin also benefits from the increased circulation."

Consequently "YOU MUST SEE INSTANT RESULTS FROM EVERY ISOMETRIC PERFORMANCE...because if you do not

FROM A PLASTIC SURGEON:

As a practicing plastic surgeon for over thirty years, I have found that your work can play an important role in facial rehabilitation; and even the avoidance of excessive wrinkling and sagging tendencies.

The surgical face lift is the only procedure that can remove the excess sagging skin in advanced cases; but even after the most complete lift, it is not long before the vertical folds on the neck and under the chin reappear.

The facial exercises as advocated by you offer promise to prevent this recurrence after the surgical lift, and possibly in many cases effect sufficient improvement that the lift could be postponed indefinitely.

—Harold M. Holden, M.D., F.I.C.S., Los Angeles, Calif.

CAN MADAME RUNGE TAKE UP TO 20 YEARS OFF THE APPEARANCE OF YOUR FACE...AS SHE HAS DONE FOR THOUSANDS OF OTHERS!

Santa Maria Runge first introduced her FACE LIFTING BY EXERCISE method through a four-and-a-half page, cover-line article in Vogue Magazine.

After the overwhelming success of this article, Madame Runge conducted a daily half-hour television program, demonstrating to Southern Californians the amazing effectiveness of her natural method. On this live program, right before their very eyes, women all over California saw almost unbelievable transformations take place in the facial contours of her mature models—and were able to duplicate these transformations, at the same time, in their own homes.

Soon, the walls of her Hollywood salon were literally covered with testimonials she received from approximately 12,000 viewers who followed the simple, step-by-step instructions given them on their television screens.

And now she has released this exact same FACE LIFTING BY EXERCISE method in women all over America!

see results, it tells you that you have done something incorrectly."

"Each exercise takes only about 60 seconds, and has to be repeated three times in succession. With this technique, models removed wrinkles from under the eyes, crow's feet, scowl and frown lines in just a few minutes right in front of the TV camera."

"Puffiness in the upper and lower eyelids containing fluid cannot be removed surgically. For its remedy refer to the eye exercise."

"A contour fault may be eliminated in a relatively short time. However, it usually takes from three to four months to restore sufficient tone to loose muscles, to enable them to HOLD the acquired condition without having to exercise every day. (After that) perhaps two or three times a week will be sufficient."

"If my exercises are applied as instructed, the results are none short of amazing at any age. Most of my exercises if done correctly, produce instantaneous results, especially in areas where muscles are attached to the skin—as on the forehead, underneath the eyes, and in the crow's feet area. But we also get marvelous results on parts where the muscles lie deeper, as in the cheeks and jowls, which produces an immediate lift."

Prove Every Word Of It Yourself—At Our Risk!

Try this revolutionary, proven method for one full month, entirely at our risk. If you don't see results that astound you—from the very first day...if you are not completely delighted, simply return the book for every cent of your money back!

Rock, famous for his TV series "MacMillan & Wife," is also starring in the movie "Embryo," a Sandy Howard production.

The last time I spoke with Rock Hudson was in his beautiful Mediterranean-style house in the hills above Los Angeles.

The house is filled with antiques, and the patio contains a jungle of potted plants, many of which Rock has grown himself in his own greenhouse. That was nine years ago.

Now, as I looked at him seated in his dressing-room trailer, casually comfortable in blue jeans, I was struck by how far the 50-year-old actor has come since being a gangling kid from Winnetka, Ill. Maturity has given his face character, and his hair is just beginning to show strands of gray. He has never been known as Hollywood's easiest talker, but I found him relaxed, witty and quietly amusing.

FAMILY WEEKLY: One time you said you wanted to become an architect...

HUDSON: A landscape architect, actually. My interest in that kind of evolved because, as a kid, I was always growing things and working on farms. During the war, I had a victory garden. Until a couple of years ago, I had never thought about a rose being anything but a flower you send to somebody. Now I'd like to grow roses.

FW: Why do you enjoy gardening?

HUDSON: Working with my hands helps me to think. If I get uptight or upset about something, I'll immediately go to the garden and do something. If I sit in the house, I just brood and stew. I remember years ago, when I was getting a divorce, I had a new sailboat. Instead of brooding, I got out on the sailboat. I found that nothing mattered except the water and the sun. They're a great leveler.

FW: What makes you happy?

HUDSON: I'm happy because I don't really analyze anything. I haven't got time for that. There are watchers and there are doers. The doers don't analyze. I am put through too much analyzing in the kind of work I do: trying to figure out a scene, analyzing what makes it come alive. Answering the questions, Why this? Why that?

FW: Is being independent important to you?

HUDSON: Yes, I like to be independent. The older I get, the more independent I become. I imagine I'll probably become a crotchety old man!

FW: Are change and variety important to you in acting?

HUDSON: Very! Do you remember a picture that Doris Day and I did called "Pillow Talk"? The year after that film was made, I was sent scripts with a note saying, "It's another 'Pillow Talk.'" I didn't even read the scripts. Why make a repeat? Furthermore, because of "Pillow Talk," I did comedy after comedy. I got bored with that. One thing that comedy requires is enthusiasm to really do it well. I had no enthusiasm, which is exactly why I did the movie "Seconds." It was a complete reverse. It was a kind of high-class horror film.

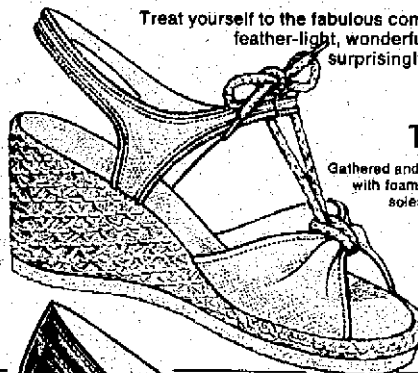

FW: What are your secret faults?

HUDSON: Practically everything! [huge

The Four Seasons

by Norman Rockwell

A Limited Edition in Solid Sterling Silver

Spring

Summer

OVER THE YEARS, THE ART OF NORMAN ROCKWELL has brought joy to millions of Americans both young and old. Now, for the first time, four original works of art in solid sterling silver, nostalgically recapture The Four Seasons by Norman Rockwell. Each is made available under the authorization of The Saturday Evening Post.

These beloved artworks—rich in detail and overflowing with Rockwell's tender humor—will be sculpted and minted to the uncompromising standards of The Hamilton Mint. And, each will bear the famous signature of Norman Rockwell.

Rockwell's interpretation of the four seasons is unmatched by contemporary artists. He sees the seasons as they illuminate the lives of everyday people: the puppy love of spring, summer's lazy days, twilight in autumn, and the crisp exuberance of winter. It's easy to see why these four works are rated among his most popular and may well become treasured heirlooms for future generations.

Limited Opportunity

To preserve the full importance of each work of art, the medals will measure a full 39 mm (1½") and contain 480 grains of solid sterling silver. Issued in a strictly limited edition at $14 per medal, each piece will be struck from highly polished proof dies. The fine detail of each sculptured work of art will be finely frosted to allow it to stand out dramatically against the mirror-like background of the medal. Each collection will be accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity attesting to the purity of the medals and their limited edition status. A framed plaque suitable for displaying the collection will be sent to each subscriber at no additional cost.

There is a strict limit of one complete set per subscriber. This is the only time charter subscription applications will be accepted for this collection.

The Hamilton Mint will contract for a sufficient amount of silver to guarantee the favorable price of $14 per medal to all charter subscribers whose subscriptions are postmarked by July 31, 1976. After that date, the Mint will refuse and return any or all orders received from this announcement. You are therefore urged to act promptly while this opportunity is before you.

It was much more important to report what the stars did at play. I'm free from that, but privacy is rather important to me. I keep my home very private, and it's nobody's damn business what goes on there! Years ago, I used to do "at-home" articles with writers. I remember one article that was meant to be used in a magazine. Then the photographer, without telling me, sold it to another magazine. It was never supposed to appear that way. If I'm not careful, fan magazines would be writing, "Here Is How Rock Peels His Onions" or "Here Is How Rock Brushes His Teeth." No sir!

FW: That's a good example of where you have asserted your independence.

HUDSON: Yeah, sure, in my private life! Years ago, I gave interview after interview. A lot of these interviews would be in my dressing room between takes, and I would have to say to the interviewer, "Would you please excuse me? I have to change my clothes." Finally I said to my agent, "Wouldn't it be nice if I could have a larger dressing room with a partition so I wouldn't have to ask the interviewer to leave?" He went to the studio manager and said, "Could we have a little larger trailer for Rock?" The man answered, "Who the hell does he think he is, Clark Gable?" My agent said, "That's right! And he wants a kitchen and an icebox, too, or he doesn't come to work!" So I got a great big trailer. When other people like Charlton Heston, Tony Curtis, Jimmy Stewart and Lana Turner saw my trailer, they said, "Aha!" By the time they all put their demands in, it must have cost the studio a good $2 million!

FW: Are friends and family important

HUDSON: Apparently not. Had family been important to me, I'd have had a family. My mother is important to me. FW: Your mother must be quite a remarkable woman.

HUDSON: She's tremendously independent. She's the exact opposite of a "stacc" mother. She could break her ribs and not let me find out about it. I'll hear about it from somebody else. I'll ask her, "Why didn't you tell me?" She doesn't like being referred to as a movie star's mother except when she needs it! [laughing]

FW: Do you and Doris Day ever plan to do a serious drama together?

HUDSON: We both would like to. The material would have to be carefully chosen because reteaming can be very dangerous! We can't hope to regress to what we did 15 years ago. We're older now. So I think it would have to be something where we are our own ages and not 21-year-olds who fall in love at first sight.

We're too old for that.

jects denied questioning their own identities, very few were unable to answer questions about how one finds out who he really is." Sixty-eight percent agreed that one discovers who he really is by helping someone who needs assistance, and 64 percent agreed that working hard at a difficult task is a way. Only 23.2 percent agreed that one finds one's identity by forgetting duties and inhibitions.

5. True. Studies at Duquesne University indicate that "self-actualizing people choose other self-actualizers as mates."

True or False? People who have found themselves—who have discovered their talents and abilities and the means of expressing them—tend to choose each other as mates. (See number 5.)

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. The popular terms "finding oneself" and "self-actualization" sound impressive—but nobody knows quite what they mean.
2. People who are self-actualizing—who have discovered who and what they are in terms of their true potential—are easy to spot because they have specific characteristics in common.
3. The ability to find yourself depends to a large extent on how physically fit you are.
4. Most people agree on the most effective ways of attaining self-actualization.
5. People who have found themselves—who have discovered their talents and abilities and the means of expressing them—tend to choose each other as mates.

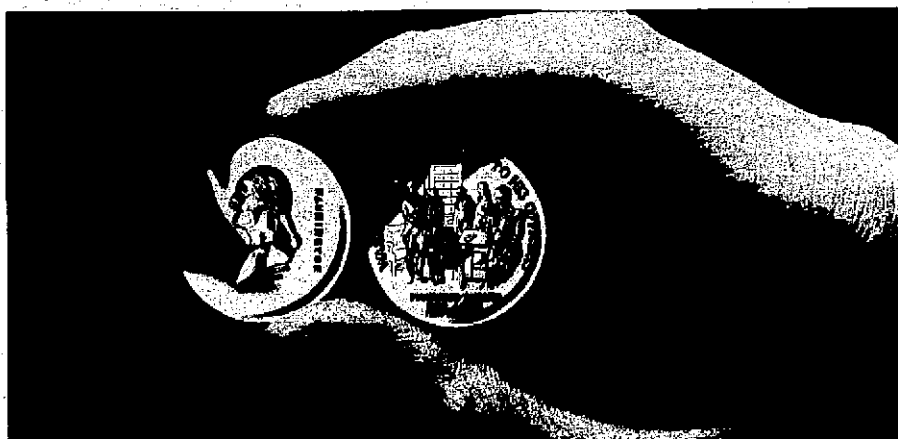

ANSWERS

1. False. They are succinctly defined by behavior specialists as a "balanced and harmonious development of all aspects of your personality; and fulfillment of personal potentialities." As psychologist Abraham H. Maslow has observed, "Self-actualization means working to do well the thing one wants to do. To become a second-rate physician is not a good path to self-actualization. You should want to be first-rate." It's further pointed out that learning what one is not good at also helps in discovering what one is.

2. True. Psychologist Maslow has characterized self-actualizing individuals as follows: "They listen to their own voices, take responsibility, are honest, and they work hard. They find out who and what they are, not only in terms of their mission in life but also in terms of what they wear, what they eat and whether they will stay up all night if they drink too much beer. All this is what the real self means."

3. False—according to the findings of a team of University of Wisconsin investigators who compared groups of physically disabled veterans with the nondisabled. Each individual took a psychological test that measured self-actualization. Conclusion: The theoretical assumption that physical disability hampers growth toward self-actualization was not supported. It's also significant that in overcoming a more common handicap—that of an undistinguished appearance—many a person has generated enough horsepower to achieve whatever goals he may have set for himself.

4. True. In a University of California survey, it was found that "although most of the sub-

SOME COMMEMORATIVE MEDALS ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD. OURS IS WORTH EVEN MORE.

Our medal—the official Bicentennial medal of the Sons of the Revolution—is struck in solid .999 platinum. Platinum—called the "king of precious metals"—is scarcer and more costly than gold. It retains its gleaming brilliance year after year. Medallion issues in platinum are seldom offered, which makes this medal of particular interest to collectors.

Offered at cost of platinum alone.

As a special one-time offer to promote platinum, this medal is being sold at the cost of the platinum it contains, based on the current producer price of $155 per ounce. It is available in three sizes: ½ oz. (1" diam.), 1 oz. (1½" diam.), and 3 oz. (2" diam.).

Limited edition.

The medal will be double-struck from hand polished dies by the prestigious Medallion Art Company (producer of the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Pulitzer Prize Medal and six of the last seven Official Presidential Inaugural Medals).

This is a strictly limited edition—with the 3 oz. medal limited to 1000, the 1 oz. medal limited to 2500 and the ½ oz. medal limited to 10,000. The medal will not be reissued.

Official medal.

This is the official Bicentennial medal of the Sons of the Revolution. The obverse features a portrait of George Washington after the C. C. Wright Independence Medal based on the famous Houdon bust. The reverse, from Hintermeister's classic painting, depicts Washington bidding farewell to his officers at Fraunces Tavern in New York. The Sons of the Revolution in the State of New York own Fraunces Tavern, and have maintained it as a museum since 1904.

Investment potential.

We believe this medal offers outstanding investment potential. Because of the extreme scarcity of platinum medallion issues, and the historical significance and classic beauty of its design, it should enjoy considerable demand among current and future collectors.

In addition, the medal represents an investment in solid platinum—a commodity which America's largest investment house is currently recommending to its clients.

No dealer orders will be accepted. The medal comes in an elegant, velvet-lined jeweler's case. Allow 30 to 60 days for delivery. Offer may be withdrawn any time.

SOLID PLATINUM. A SOLID INVESTMENT.

the basic principle that private business must assume the risk for success or failure, profit or loss, in the competitive marketplace. When small or medium-sized businesses go bankrupt, the Federal Government doesn't step in to save them. Why should there be socialism for the rich and free enterprise for the poor?

On Foreign Policy: We must stand strong in those parts of the world where our vital interests are at stake, like Western Europe, Israel and the Middle East and the outer reaches of the Pacific. As far as the Third World goes, those new countries won't stay subjugated under any foreign rule for very long, whether it's Cuban- or Russian-based. We don't need to get involved in every African or Asian war that comes along.

On Détente: The part of détente I object to has to do with big American corporations trying to develop the resources of the Soviet Union on American credit and then having the whole thing underwritten by the U.S. Government. That kind of aid is really American aid in disguise, and I oppose it.

Brown

job opportunities in a very serious way.

On Crime: The Federal Government can aid in reducing crime by providing an environment of job opportunity. It can break down the barriers to job entry, provide more skilled training and help in making the cities more livable overall. After many years of the Law Enforcement Administration and great rhetoric about crime in the streets, the Federal effort has been shown to be of limited success—prison and police problems are local responsibilities.

On the Economy: Inflation is moderating, so we should begin to look at other priorities, the first of which is taking initiatives to provide greater job opportunities to those Americans who don't have any right now. If inflation returns, I think the President needs standby authority to restrain price increases.

On the U.N.: The U.N. has a lot of problems, but those problems just reflect the confusion all over the world—the maldistribution of wealth and goods, so many new nations, imperialism, overreach, the narrow interest of so many countries and all sorts of other "human" problems. I think that America with her power and place in the world could provide a leadership-directive toward a more peaceful resolution of these problems. We haven't done well in the U.N. in recent years because our policy has been so unimaginative, because we lack a forward vision of where this country and this planet are going. We must redefine our role in the U.N. as we must redefine our foreign policy.

On Selling Wheat to Russia: By selling wheat to Russia we have enabled the Soviets to divert their gross national product into military products, and this comes back as a threat to us. I think that grain sales and other economic benefits to the Russians should be part of an overall negotiation, taking into account what the Soviets are doing around the world. I think wheat sales to the Russians can be used as an important tool in our diplomacy.

On Foreign Policy: Instead of having a foreign policy that's sterile and reactive, I'd like to see us regain some initiative. As it stands, we don't engender enthusiasm for it at home nor have our policies earned the respect of the rest of the world. We have been operating on the chess-board theory that each piece that moves left requires our intervention. Well, that didn't work in Southeast Asia, and it didn't work in Angola. I'd like to see a foreign policy that's based on realism. We must take the long view: The question is the survival of the human species. Nuclear proliferation, overpopulation, the food crisis, ecological collapse—these are potential risks that, either separately or in combination, threaten the continued viability of man. To come to terms with these problems, I'd like to see a freer exchange of ideas between America and the rest of the world.

Helps Shrink Swelling Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Due To Inflammation. Relieves Pain & Itch...

Gives prompt temporary relief in many cases from hemorrhoidal pain and burning itch in such tissues.

There's an exclusive medication which actually helps shrink painful swelling of hemorrhoidal tissues caused by inflammation. And in many cases it gives prompt relief for hours from rectal itching and pain in such tissues.

showed while it gently relieved such pain, it also helped reduce swelling of these tissues. The medication used in the tests was Preparation H[®]. No prescription is needed for Preparation H. In ointment or suppository form.

Does Your Antacid Upset Your Low-Salt Diet?

The leading antacid roll tablet may be giving you more than half your daily sodium allowance. Here's what to do!

If you're worried about salt in your diet—a case of heartburn or acid indigestion can present a real problem.

You should know that just five tablets of the leading roll antacid taken during the day would exceed more than half the allowance of sodium many doctors recommend for strict low-salt diets. That's playing it pretty close. And that's why you ought to know about a tablet that absorbs more excess acid than the leading roll brand—yet contains far less sodium. Its name is Bisodol[®] Tablets. (Bisodol Powder does contain sodium bicarbonate for people not concerned with low-salt diets.)

Bisodol Tablets quickly relieve that miserable heartburn and acid indigestion, and it's good to know you can take them whenever you need them—without worrying about sodium.

Remember, Bisodol Tablets... are low in sodium—high in antacid power.

SOBER REFLECTIONS

A mirror doesn't say a word,
At least one I have never heard.
And yet a mirror I should thank,
For I've no friend who is so frank.
A mirror doesn't hesitate,
I haven't any need to wait.
Undinchingly it does its duty

Quips & Quotes

And lets me know that I'm no beauty,
That I've a nose that gets attention
But no one has the nerve to mention,
That if I've hair at all, it's thin,
That I could use a bit more chin.
All this and more from it I've learnt:
I know it's right but wish it weren't.

Kissing is a means of getting two people so close together that they can't see anything wrong with each other.
—Gene Yassenak

Last Saturday night we were going out, so my wife put on her five-inch-heeled shoes, a blond wig, blue eye shadow, false eyelashes and silver lipstick. Then she went into the kids' room and said, "Now drink your milk, go to bed at nine, and I don't want to hear from the baby sitter that you caused any trouble!" She blew them a kiss and left. One kid turned to the other and said, "Who was that?"

What in the World!

JACQUELINE ONASSIS
A Firm Handshake, Too

In no way did she mean it as a criticism of Jackie Onassis, said singer Tina Turner, who met Jackie recently in New York and related: "She's got peach fuzz. It's all along her chin and jaw line. And her face is enormous. She also has a lot of hair. Too much. But she has a nice smile, a firm handshake and is a good dresser. I liked her over-all look." And how does Jackie stay so slim? It's a mystery according to restaurateur Stephen Bruce, whose chic New York establishment, Serendipity, Jackie frequents. Bruce talking: "Jackie almost always orders an omelet with caviar and sour cream. With it, she has

DEEPNELL WEIGHS IN
He's not to be toyed with

Pekingese dogs are notably tiny, but Deepnell Tookee-toe-toe barely tips the scales at half a pound. Deepnell is thought to be the world's smallest "toy" dog—in fact, the only big thing about him is his Oriental name. "All his brothers and sisters are at least twice his size," said owner Lisa Gray. "But while he may be the world's smallest runt, he's more than just a ball of fur. Pekingese make excellent house pets and their protective instincts will surprise you."

a frozen hot chocolate. Her son, John, is usually with her and he has a foot-long hot dog with chili, onions and parsley on it; and he sips a frozen apicot 'smush.' Her bill, even with taxes and tip, is normally under $15 for lunch."

Great "inside" baseball story: "It was two days after the 1973 World Series. Dick Williams had managed Oakland to the championship, then resigned. At the time, Charlie O. Finley, the flamboyant Oakland owner, gave his blessings. He had another manager in mind. He made a long-distance call to Sparky Anderson, the Reds' manager. 'I'd like you to manage my ball team,' said Finley, his deep, gruff voice making it sound more like an order than an offer. Anderson cut him short. 'I'm not interested at this time,' Anderson said to Finley. 'You do flatter me, telling me I'm the first man you offered the job to, but I'll never leave Bob Howsman [the Reds' general manager]. He brought me to the big leagues. He gave me a helluva club. I owe everything to him. I'll never even consider another offer until he tells me I'm through.' Finley didn't seem shocked. To the contrary, he answered, 'I'm sure glad there's still someone with integrity left in this game.' A few days later Finley filed suit to keep Williams as his manager, successfully preventing him from taking a job as manager of the New York Yankees." From "The Big Red Machine: The Inside Story of Baseball's Best Team," by Bob Hertz (Prentice-Hall, $7.95).
